SUMMARY

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements”. These elements are numbered in Sections A – E (A.1 – E.7).

This summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for this type of securities and Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements.

Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in the summary because of the type of securities and Issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element is included in the summary with the mention of “not applicable”.

regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. However, there can be no assurance that a liquid secondary market for the Notes will develop.

- It cannot be ruled out that the price of the Notes may fall as a result of changes in different variables, such as overall economic development, inflation, demand for the Notes or the interest rate on the capital market.
- The Euro-denominated Notes could represent a currency risk for a Holder if the euro represents a foreign currency to such Holder; in addition governments and competent authorities could impose exchange controls in the future.
- The Issuer may be required to withhold U.S. tax in respect of Notes issued or materially modified (or Notes treated as equity for U.S. federal tax purposes) on or after January 1, 2013 pursuant to the foreign account provisions of the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 – FATCA.
- Because the Global Notes are held by or on behalf of Clearstream Frankfurt, investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with the Issuer.
- A Holder is subject to the risk of being outvoted and of losing rights towards the Issuer against his will in the case that the Holders agree to amendments of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes by majority vote according to the German Act on Issues of Debt Securities (Gesetz über Schuldverschreibungen aus Gesamtemissionen, "SchVG"). In the case of an appointment of a joint representative for all Holders a particular Holder may lose, in whole or in part, the possibility to enforce and claim his rights against the Issuer regardless of other Holders.
- The market value of the Notes could decrease if the creditworthiness of the Issuer and/or the Group worsens or the market participants’ estimation of the creditworthiness of corporate debtors in general or of debtors operating in the same business as the Issuer and/or the Group adversely changes.

RISK FACTORS

Before deciding to purchase the Notes, investors should carefully review and consider the following risk factors and the other information contained in this Prospectus. Should one or more of the risks described below materialise, this may have a material adverse effect on the business, prospects, shareholders’ equity, assets, financial position and results of operations (Vermögens-, Finanz- und Ertragslage) or general affairs of the Issuer or the Group. Moreover, if any of these risks occur, the market value of the Notes and the likelihood that the Issuer will be in a position to fulfil its payment obligations under the Notes may decrease, in which case the Holders could lose all or part of their investments. Factors which the Issuer believe may be material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with the Notes are also described below.

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in the Notes, but the Issuer may be unable to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with the Notes for other reasons than those described below, and the Issuer does not represent that the statements below are exhaustive. Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Prospectus (including any documents incorporated by reference herein) and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Words and expressions defined in "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" below shall have the same meanings in this section.

Risks relating to the Issuer and Deutsche Börse Group

The following is a description of the risk factors, which may affect the ability of the Issuer to fulfil its obligations under the Notes. Potential investors should carefully read and consider these risk factors before deciding upon the purchase of the Notes.

Potential investors should consider these risk factors and all other information provided in this Prospectus and consult their own experts. In addition, the investors should bear in mind that several of the mentioned risks may occur simultaneously and that their implication can, possibly together with other circumstances, thus be intensified. The order in which the risks are described does neither represent a conclusion about their probability of occurrence nor the gravity or significance of the individual risks. The following information is not exhaustive. Indeed, further risks which have not been visible yet may also affect the business activities of the Group and the ability of the Issuer to fulfil its obligations arising from the Notes. Due to the occurrence of each individual risk described in the following, investors could lose their invested capital in whole or in part.

An investment in the Notes comes along with accepting risks of the underlying operational business of the Issuer. As an internationally operating company the risk situation of the Issuer comprises various aspects. The overall risk situation and any of the following single risks may influence the future income, asset and liquidity situation of the Issuer negatively:
Risk Factors relating to the Issuer

Insufficient systems capacity and systems failures could adversely affect Deutsche Börse Group’s business.

Deutsche Börse Group's business depends on the performance and reliability of complex computer and communications systems, including upgrades. Heavy use of platforms and order routing systems during peak trading times or at times of unusually high market volatility could cause Deutsche Börse Group's systems to operate slowly or even to fail for periods of time. Failure to maintain systems, ensure security or to ensure sufficient capacity may also result in a temporary disruption of Deutsche Börse Group's regulatory and reporting functions.

Deutsche Börse Group has experienced systems failures in the past, and it is possible that Deutsche Börse Group will experience systems failures in the future. Systems failures could be caused by, among other things, periods of insufficient capacity of network bandwidth, power or telecommunications failures, acts of God, war, terrorism, human error, natural disasters, fire, sabotage, hardware or software malfunctions or defects, computer viruses, intentional acts of vandalism and similar events over which Deutsche Börse Group has little or no control. Deutsche Börse Group also relies on third parties for systems support. Any interruption in these third-party services or deterioration in the performance of these services could also be disruptive to its business.

If Deutsche Börse Group cannot expand system capacity to handle increased demand, or if its systems otherwise fail to perform and it experiences disruptions in service, slower response times or delays in introducing new products and services, then Deutsche Börse Group could incur reputational damage, regulatory sanctions, litigation, loss of trading share, loss of trading volume and loss of revenues, any of which could also have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group operates in a business environment that continues to experience significant and rapid technological change.

Technological change is key component of Deutsche Börse Group's business strategy and is crucial to its success. Deutsche Börse Group seeks to offer market participants a comprehensive suite of best-in-class technology solutions in a centralized environment. However, Deutsche Börse Group operates in a business environment that has undergone, and continues to experience, significant and rapid technological change. In recent years, electronic trading and customer demand for increased choice of execution methods has grown significantly. To remain competitive, Deutsche Börse Group must continue to enhance and improve the responsiveness, functionality, capacity, accessibility and features of its trading platforms, software, systems and technologies. Its success will depend, in part, on its ability to develop and license leading technologies, enhance existing trading, clearing and settlement platforms and services and create new platforms and services. Furthermore, it needs to respond to customer demands, technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a cost-effective and timely basis, and continue to attract and retain highly skilled technology staff to maintain and develop existing technology and to adapt to and manage emerging technologies.

The development and expansion of electronic trading, clearing, settlement, custody, collateral management and market data-related technologies entail significant technological, financial and business risks. These risks include Deutsche Börse Group failing or being unable to provide reliable and cost-effective electronic services to its customers, timely developing the required functionality to support electronic trading in key products comparable to systems on other electronic markets, matching fees of its competitors that offer electronic-only trading facilities, attracting independent software vendors to write front-end software that will effectively access Deutsche Börse Group's electronic trading systems and automated order routing systems, responding to technological developments or service offerings by competitors, and generating sufficient revenue to justify the substantial capital investment Deutsche Börse Group has made and will continue to make in enhancements to its electronic trading platforms, as well as its clearing and settlement systems. The adoption of new technologies or market practices may require Deutsche Börse Group to devote additional resources to improve and adapt its services. Deutsche Börse Group operates on a high cost base and has accordingly a high operational leverage.
Any failure or delay in exploiting technology, or failure to exploit technology as effectively as competitors of Deutsche Börse Group, or any requirements to adopt costs due to the required changes could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Service deficiency in Deutsche Börse Group's manual data processing could result in losses.

Deutsche Börse Group relies mostly on automated data processing. However, not all of the data processing is automated and manual data processing in relation to certain services rendered to its customers is required. Therefore, operator errors or omissions may occur that relate mainly to manual input of data (e.g. incorrect processing of customer instructions in the custody business). As a result, Deutsche Börse Group remains exposed in certain business segments to the risk of inadequate handling of customer instructions. In addition, manual intervention in market and system management is necessary in certain cases. The manual intervention in data processing may lead to mistakes, which could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

A failure to protect Deutsche Börse Group’s intellectual property rights, or allegations that Deutsche Börse Group has infringed intellectual property rights of others, could adversely affect Deutsche Börse Group’s business.

Deutsche Börse Group owns or licenses rights to a number of trademarks, service marks, trade names, copyrights and patents that it uses in its businesses, including exclusive rights to use certain indices as the basis for equity index derivatives products traded on its futures markets and the rights to use Deutsche Börse Group’s data for trading, calculation and benchmarking purposes. To protect its intellectual property rights, Deutsche Börse Group relies on a combination of trademark laws, copyright laws, patent laws, trade secret protection, confidentiality agreements and other contractual arrangements with affiliates, customers, strategic investors and others. The protective steps taken may be inadequate to deter misappropriation of its intellectual property. Deutsche Börse Group may be unable to detect the unauthorized use of, or take appropriate steps to enforce, its intellectual property rights. Furthermore, some of the products and processes of Deutsche Börse Group may not be subject to intellectual property protection. Failure to protect intellectual property adequately could harm Deutsche Börse Group's reputation and affect its ability to compete effectively.

Third parties may assert intellectual property rights claims against Deutsche Börse Group, which may be costly to defend, could require the payment of damages and could limit Deutsche Börse Group's ability to use certain technologies, trademarks or other intellectual property. Some of Deutsche Börse Group's competitors currently own patents and have actively been filing patent applications in recent years, some of which may relate to its trading platforms and business processes. As a result, Deutsche Börse Group may face allegations that it has infringed or otherwise violated the intellectual property rights of third parties. Any intellectual property rights claims, with or without merit, could be expensive to litigate or settle and could divert management resources and attention. Successful challenges against Deutsche Börse Group could require it to modify or discontinue its use of technology or business processes where such use is found to infringe or violate the rights of others, or require Deutsche Börse Group to purchase licenses from third parties, any of which could also have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group faces significant competition and competes globally with a broad range of market participants for listings, trading, clearing and settlement volumes.

The securities industry, including listings, trade execution, clearing and settlement of cash equities, bonds and derivatives, is highly competitive. Deutsche Börse Group faces significant competition for listings, trading, clearing and settlement of equities, fixed income securities, repos, exchange-traded funds (ETFs), closed-end funds, structured products, futures, options and other derivatives. Deutsche Börse Group expects competition in the securities industry to increase further and anticipates that new competitors will enter the industry. For example, the central securities depository settlement services of Clearstream Holding AG and its consolidated subsidiaries (“Clearstream”) will face increased competition in the context of the launch of TARGET2-Securities (T2S), the emerging centralized European settlement platform, as CSDs position themselves as a preferred entry point to T2S.
Competitors and new entrants may be subject to less stringent regulatory oversight than Deutsche Börse Group currently faces. The ongoing consolidation of the industry by mergers, business combinations or otherwise may continue. As a result of these combinations, and as a result of new entrants entering the industry, global competition among listing venues, trading markets and other execution venues as well as among clearing service providers has become more intense. The global derivatives industry has become increasingly competitive. Exchanges, intermediaries, and even end users are consolidating and over the counter (OTC) and unregulated entities are constantly evolving. Additionally, in response to growing competition, many marketplaces have demutualized to provide greater flexibility for future growth.

Sustained trends toward the liberalization of certain parts of the industry, technological innovation and globalization of world capital markets have resulted in greater mobility of capital, greater international participation in local markets and more competition among markets in different geographical areas. The financial infrastructure industry has undergone significant consolidation through mergers, acquisitions and major alliances globally in recent years.

The current and prospective competitors of Deutsche Börse Group include both traditional and non-traditional execution and listing venues, securities and securities option exchanges, futures exchanges, OTC markets, clearing organizations, market data and information vendors, electronic communications networks, multilateral trading facilities (MTFs), crossing systems and similar entities, consortia of large customers, consortia of clearing firms and electronic brokerage and dealing facilities, market makers, banks, index providers, news and analytics providers, financial services technology providers and other financial market participants. Some of these competitors are also among the largest customers of Deutsche Börse Group. Deutsche Börse Group faces significant and growing competition from financial institutions that have the ability to divert trading and/or clearing volumes from Deutsche Börse Group's exchanges and clearing houses. Deutsche Börse Group competes with other market participants in a variety of ways, including the cost, quality and speed of trade execution, liquidity, functionality, ease of use and performance of trading systems, the ranges of products and services offered to trading participants and listed companies, technological innovation and reputation. In particular, Deutsche Börse Group's competitors may exploit regulatory disparities between traditional, regulated exchanges and alternative markets that benefit from a reduced regulatory burden and lower-cost business model or consolidate and form alliances, which may create greater liquidity, lower costs, and better pricing than Deutsche Börse Group can offer. These competitors may also better leverage existing relationships with customers and alliance partners or better exploit brand names to market and sell their services.

Failure of Deutsche Börse Group to compete successfully could have a material adverse effect on its business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group’s business may be adversely affected by intense price competition.

The securities industry, including listings, trade execution, clearing and settlement of cash equities, bonds and derivatives as well as index/news supply, is characterized by intense price competition. In particular, the pricing model for listings, trade execution, clearing and settlement has changed in response to competitive market conditions. In recent years, some of Deutsche Börse Group's competitors have engaged in aggressive pricing strategies, including lowering the fees that they charge for taking liquidity and increasing liquidity (or offering rebates) as an incentive for providers of liquidity in certain markets. It is likely that Deutsche Börse Group will continue to experience significant pricing pressure and that some of its competitors will seek to increase their share of listings, trading or clearing by reducing their fees, by offering larger liquidity payments or by offering other forms of financial or other incentives.

Profit margins could also decline if Deutsche Börse Group reduces pricing in response, particularly in light of the substantially fixed cost nature of the trading and clearing businesses of Deutsche Börse Group. In addition, a decrease in the market share in the listing and trading businesses as a result of price pressure could adversely impact other business segments, such as Deutsche Börse Group the market data & analytics business. Deutsche Börse Group also might be forced to lower its subscription fees for instruments listed on Xetra or Eurex due to competitors offering similar services at lower prices or for free. Furthermore, many internalization strategies are driven by cost-saving or profit incentive, thus further increasing the desire of Deutsche Börse Group's customers to avoid incurring fees on its exchanges or clearing houses. Deutsche Börse Group's results of operations and future profitability could be adversely affected as a result of these activities.

Adverse economic and legal conditions could negatively affect trading, clearing and listing activities and thereby Deutsche Börse Group's business.

General economic conditions affect the overall level of trading and clearing activity in securities and derivatives markets as well as new listings in securities markets, which directly impact Deutsche Börse Group's results of operations. A significant portion of Deutsche Börse Group's revenue will depend, either directly or indirectly, on transaction-based fees that, in turn, depend on Deutsche Börse Group's ability to attract and maintain order flow, both in absolute terms and relative to other market centers. Adverse economic conditions may result in a deterioration of the economic success of the companies listed on Deutsche Börse Group's exchanges and hence a decline in trading volume and demand for market data and a decrease of asset-based fees, which may adversely affect Deutsche Börse Group's revenues and future growth. The introduction of a financial transaction tax as currently proposed by the EU Member States could result in decreased trading volumes. Declines in volumes may impact Deutsche Börse Group's market share or pricing structures. Poor economic conditions may also negatively impact new listings by reducing the number or size of securities offerings.

A lack of investor confidence in the financial markets could also have a negative effect on Deutsche Börse Group's financial performance. Recent global market and economic conditions have been difficult and volatile, in particular for financial services companies that are Deutsche Börse Group's most significant customers. These conditions have resulted in significantly increased volatility, outflows of customer funds and securities, losses resulting from declining asset values, defaults on securities and reduced liquidity. In the event of a significant and sustained decline in trading and/or clearing volumes, including a reduction in the number of traders, reduced trading demand by customers of Deutsche Börse Group or a decision by regulators or market participants to curtail speculative or high frequency trading, Deutsche Börse Group would lose revenue, and its inability to quickly reduce infrastructure and overhead expenses could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Liquidity shortages due to the economic conditions could limit Deutsche Börse Group's ability to implement its business initiatives.

During 2009 and 2010, companies in many different industries found it difficult to borrow money from banks and other lending sources, and also experienced difficulty raising funds in the capital markets. While access to credit markets has improved in 2011 and 2012, several European states are facing concerns regarding their ability to service and/or refinance their sovereign debt. As a consequence, credit ratings have been downgraded concerning both, sovereign states and major financial institutions. The resulting ongoing upheaval in the credit markets continues to impact the economy. While Deutsche Börse Group has not experienced reductions in their borrowing capacity, lenders in general have taken actions that indicate their concerns regarding liquidity in the marketplace. These actions have included reduced advance rates for certain security types, more stringent requirements for collateral eligibility and higher interest rates. Should lenders continue to take additional similar actions, the cost of conducting Deutsche Börse Group's businesses may increase and Deutsche Börse Group's ability to implement its business initiatives could be limited. In addition, Deutsche Börse Group's ability to raise financing could be impaired if rating agencies, lenders or investors develop a negative perception of its financial prospects, or of prospects for the industries in which it operates, which could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Broad market trends and other factors beyond the control of Deutsche Börse Group could significantly reduce demand for its services.

Deutsche Börse Group's business, cash flows and results of operations are highly dependent upon the levels of activity on its exchanges and clearing houses, and in particular, upon the volume of financial instruments traded and/or cleared, the number and shares outstanding of listed issuers, the number of new listings, the number of traders in the market and similar factors. Deutsche Börse Group’s business, cash flows and results of operations are also dependent upon the success of its commercial technology business, which, in turn, is directly dependent on the commercial well being of its customers. Deutsche Börse Group has no direct control over these variables. These variables are in turn influenced by economic, political and market conditions in Europe, the United States, and elsewhere in the world that are beyond Deutsche Börse Group’s direct control, including factors such as broad trends in business and finance, including industry-specific circumstances, capital market trends and the mergers and acquisitions environment, concerns over inflation and the level of institutional or retail confidence; changes in monetary policy and foreign currency exchange rates, changes in tax policy (e.g. the introduction of a financial transaction tax), the availability of short-term and long-term funding and capital, the availability of alternative investment opportunities; changes in the level of trading activity, changes and volatility in the prices of securities, changes in the level and volatility of interest rates and growth in gross domestic product (GDP), legislative and regulatory changes (e.g. revision of Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) and introduction of European Market Infrastructure Regulation (EMIR)), legislative and regulatory changes, and unforeseen market closures or other disruptions in trading, clearing, settlement, custody, collateral management and/or market data technology.

General economic conditions affect financial and securities markets in a number of ways, from determining availability of capital to influencing investor confidence. Adverse changes in the economy or the outlook for the financial and securities industry can have a negative impact on Deutsche Börse Group’s revenues through declines in trading volumes, new listings, clearing and settlement volumes and demand for market data. The tax policy applicable at the venue of exchanges operated by Deutsche Börse Group may also influence the attractiveness of these exchanges. Currently the Member States of the EU are consulting regarding the introduction of a financial transaction tax within the Member States of the EU. In case such financial transaction tax will be levied in the future, it cannot be excluded that some or all transactions on Deutsche Börse Group’s European exchanges will be taxed. If levels of activity on Deutsche Börse Group’s exchanges are adversely affected by any of the factors described above or other factors beyond its control, this could also have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group’s business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group is exposed to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates and interest rates.

Since Deutsche Börse Group conducts operations in several different countries, including several European countries and the United States, a substantial portion of its assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses are denominated in euros, U.S. dollars and Swiss francs. As a result, Deutsche Börse Group is exposed to foreign exchange rate fluctuations. In addition Deutsche Börse Group is exposed to interest rate fluctuations, in particular in connection with cash investments or borrowings as well as through corporate transactions. Deutsche Börse Group may use derivative financial instruments with the aim to reduce some of the negative impacts that could result from fluctuations in these rates. Deutsche Börse Group’s assumptions and assessments with regard to the future development of these rates and the chosen level of risk avoidance or risk tolerance has a substantial impact on the success or failure of its hedging policies. The failure of Deutsche Börse Group’s hedging policies could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group’s business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group is exposed to liquidity risk and may lack sufficient liquidity to meet its daily payment obligations or may incur increased refinancing costs.

Deutsche Börse Group is exposed to liquidity risk, and may in the future lack sufficient liquidity to meet its daily payment obligations or may incur increased refinancing costs in the event of liquidity shortages. Deutsche Börse Group manages liquidity risk by matching the duration of investments and liabilities, restricting investments in potentially illiquid or volatile asset classes, pledging securities received with central banks and maintaining sufficient financing facilities to overcome unexpected demands for liquidity. Credit lines are also available to Deutsche Börse Group to provide additional liquidity should it be needed. Nevertheless, Deutsche Börse Group cannot guarantee that current liquidity levels and contingency credit lines will be adequate in every event of liquidity shortages. A future lack of sufficient liquidity to close out open positions could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group's business may be adversely affected by risks associated with clearing and settlement activities.

The customers of Deutsche Börse Group’s subsidiaries that operate its clearing and settlement businesses, Eurex Clearing AG and Clearstream, may default on their contractual, borrowing or guarantee obligations and not be able to fulfill their obligations or settle outstanding liabilities. Eurex Clearing AG is the clearinghouse within Deutsche Börse Group. It offers fully automated and straight-through post-trade services for derivatives, equities, repo, energy and fixed income transactions. In its role as a central counterparty, Eurex Clearing AG is exposed to counterparty, credit and market risk because it acts as a buyer to all sellers and as a seller to all buyers, thereby seeking to minimize counterparty risk and to maximize operational efficiency. Eurex Clearing AG maintains policies and procedures to help ensure that its clearing members can satisfy their obligations and uses several lines of defense to cover counterparty risks, including guarantee funds (clearing funds) and requesting daily and, where necessary, intraday deposit of collateral by clearing members in the form of cash or securities in line with the parties' respective positions and margin requirements. In the event of a clearing member's default, the collateral deposited may be inadequate to cover all remaining obligations after closing out all open positions. Clearstream lends only on a short-term basis, for the purposes of increasing the efficiency of the settlement of securities transactions and largely to collateralized parties with a good credit rating. These credit lines may be revoked at any time. Furthermore, Clearstream is also exposed to credit risk in its securities lending activities. Although lending transactions are collateralized, Clearstream customers may default and the collateral held may not be sufficient to avoid incurring a credit loss, which could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

In the event that any of the above counterparties to Deutsche Börse Group default on their obligations, such default could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operation.

Deutsche Börse Group's share of trading equities in Europe has declined and may continue to decline.

As a result of increasing competition, including from nontraditional trading venues and other competitors that are also among Deutsche Börse Group's largest customers, Deutsche Börse Group's share of turnover in equities trading as shown in the European Electronic Order Book Equity Trading published by the Federation of European Securities Exchanges declined from approximately 13.5% in 2009 to 12.2% in 2010, and to 12.1% in 2011 and 11.94% in the first six months of 2012. Pan-European blue-chip MTFs and OTC markets offer trading in the securities listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and compete directly with Deutsche Börse Group for market share. If Deutsche Börse Group's trading share continues to decrease relative to its competitors, Deutsche Börse Group may be less attractive to market participants as a source of liquidity.

If growth in Deutsche Börse Group's overall trading volumes of Deutsche Börse Group-listed securities does not offset any significant decline in their trading share, or if a decline in its trading share in Deutsche Börse Group-listed securities makes its venues appear less liquid, then this could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

If Deutsche Börse Group's goodwill or intangible assets become impaired, Deutsche Börse Group may be required to record a significant charge to earnings.

Deutsche Börse Group reviews its amortizable intangible assets for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. Goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangible assets are tested for impairment at least annually, and are also tested when factors arise that may be considered a change in circumstances indicating that the carrying value of the goodwill or intangible assets may not be recoverable, such as a decline in stock price and market capitalization, reduced future cash flow estimates, and slower growth rates. Deutsche Börse Group cannot guarantee that impairment charges will not be necessary on goodwill or other intangible assets on any future balance sheet date particularly in the event of a substantial deterioration of Deutsche Börse Group’s future prospects or general economic conditions.

If impairment charges occur, this could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group depends on large customers.

A considerable portion of Deutsche Börse Group's revenues are derived from business conducted by Deutsche Börse Group with institutional clients and large financial institutions. For example, in Deutsche Börse Group's Xetra business, the 10 largest trading participants in Xetra accounted for nearly half of the total trading volumes on Xetra in 2011. On the Eurex side of Deutsche Börse Group's business (excluding International Securities Exchange, LLC (ISE)), the 10 largest customers accounted for nearly one third of the overall trading volumes of Eurex for 2011. Clearstream's 10 largest customers accounted for more than one third of Clearstream's sales revenues in 2011. Loss of all or a substantial portion of trading volumes of any of Deutsche Börse Group's large customers for whatever reason could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group is subject to significant litigation risks and other liabilities.

Many aspects of Deutsche Börse Group's business involve litigation risks. These risks include potential liability from disputes over terms of a securities trade or from claims that a system or operational failure or delay caused monetary losses to a customer, as well as potential liability from claims that Deutsche Börse Group facilitated an unauthorized transaction or provided materially false or misleading statements in connection with a transaction. Deutsche Börse Group is involved and may continue to be involved in allegations of misuse of the intellectual property of others, as well as other commercial disputes. Dissatisfied customers frequently make claims against their service providers regarding quality of trade execution, improperly cleared or settled trades, mismanagement or even fraud. Although aspects of Deutsche Börse Group's business are protected by regulatory immunity, Deutsche Börse Group could nevertheless be exposed to substantial liability under German law, U.S. federal and state laws and court decisions, rules and regulations promulgated by the German Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht – BaFin), the SEC, U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) or European and other regulators, and laws and court decisions in the countries where Deutsche Börse Group operates. Deutsche Börse Group could incur significant expenses defending claims, even those without merit. In addition, an adverse resolution of any lawsuit or claim against Deutsche Börse Group may require it to pay substantial damages or impose restrictions on how it conducts business.

Certain members of Deutsche Börse Group are involved in various legal proceedings, including actions seeking damages and the restraint of certain securities held in an account of Clearstream Banking S.A. alleged to be beneficially owned by an Iranian government entity in connection with an enforcement action against the government of Iran by representatives of victims of a bombing in Beirut in the 1980s. In addition, Clearstream Banking S.A. is subject to an action seeking damages for alleged improper payments in violation of a judgment obtained by creditors of the Republic of Argentina and an action has been filed against Clearstream Banking S.A., seeking damages for alleged improper payments made to former investors in the Madoff Ponzi scheme.

An adverse result with respect to any of these various proceedings could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group’s networks and those of its third-party service providers may be vulnerable to security risks.

The secure transmission of confidential information over public and other networks is a critical element of Deutsche Börse Group's operations. Deutsche Börse Group's networks and those of its third-party service providers may be vulnerable to unauthorized access, computer viruses and other security problems. Persons who circumvent security measures could wrongfully access and use Deutsche Börse Group's information or its customers' information, or cause interruptions or malfunctions in its operations. Deutsche Börse Group has frequently been the target of attempted information security attacks, and although none of these attempts has resulted in any material issues for either company, the security measures taken by Deutsche Börse Group are costly and may ultimately prove inadequate. This could cause Deutsche Börse Group to incur reputational damage, regulatory sanctions, litigation, loss of trading share, loss of trading volume and loss of revenues, any of which could also have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

If the indices and other products of Deutsche Börse Group contain undetected errors or malfunction, this could have a material adverse effect on its business.
The market data & analytics business of Deutsche Börse Group develops, calculates, markets and distributes indices in a variety of asset classes. As a result, Deutsche Börse Group's indices underlie derivative financial instruments of investors, financial market product developers and issuers. Indices and other products developed or licensed by Deutsche Börse Group may contain miscalculations or undetected errors. As a consequence market participants who use real-time price and order book information or other market moving signals to make their buy or sell decisions and recommendations or require accurate instrument reference data for risk management activities and error-free settlement may base their decisions on miscalculated or erroneous information. Therefore, Deutsche Börse Group may be exposed to damage claims brought forward against it based on such miscalculations or undetected errors and could suffer harm to its reputation, contractual disputes, negative publicity, delays in or loss of market acceptance of its products, license terminations or renegotiations, or unexpected expenses and diversion of resources to remedy errors. This may have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group's reliance on third parties could adversely affect its business if these third parties cease to perform the functions that they currently perform.
Deutsche Börse Group relies on third-party service providers, including information technology hardware providers and certain data suppliers that it does not control. In particular, the index and analytic products developed in the market data & analytics business and the business of STOXX Ltd. of Deutsche Börse Group are dependent upon updates and continuing access to historical and current data from third-party sources, such as exchanges and other data suppliers who calculate and provide a variety of indices. If any of the provided information has errors, is delayed or is unavailable, this could materially impair the ability of Deutsche Börse Group to effectively operate these businesses. In particular, the timing of calculations of real-time indices as reference prices for certain derivatives is critical, and any delay may cause Deutsche Börse Group to face liabilities from customers who rely on these indices as a reference point for their specific products.

Deutsche Börse Group also relies on members of the trading community to maintain markets and add liquidity. Global market and economic conditions have been difficult and volatile in recent years, in particular for financial services companies, such as the members of the exchanges.
To the extent that any external service providers provide inadequate products, experience difficulties or losses, do not provide sufficiently experienced personnel, are unable to provide services to the required levels or otherwise fail to meet their obligations under their service arrangements with Deutsche Börse Group, a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations could occur.

Deutsche Börse Group will face risks when entering into or increasing its presence in markets or when entering into new business lines.
Deutsche Börse Group may enter into or increase its presence in markets that already possess established competitors, for instance in Asia or other emerging markets where Deutsche Börse Group may face competition from established globally or regionally active market operators. Attracting customers in certain countries may also be subject to a number of risks, including currency exchange rate risk, difficulties in enforcing agreements or collecting receivables, longer payment cycles, compliance with the laws or regulations of these countries, and political and regulatory uncertainties. Deutsche Börse Group may also expand its presence or enter into newly developing arenas of competition, e.g. emerging asset classes for derivatives contracts such as commodities, emissions, power and weather, facing competition from already established regulated competitors such as less regulated competitors, e.g. voice and electronic interdealer brokers. In addition, demand for such services is subject to uncertainty and may change over time with the emergence of new competing products. As a result, demand and market acceptance for Deutsche Börse Group's products and services within these markets will be subject to a high degree of uncertainty and risk.

Deutsche Börse Group may be unable to enter into or increase its presence in these markets and compete successfully, which could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Damage to Deutsche Börse Group's reputation could materially adversely affect Deutsche Börse Group's business.

One of Deutsche Börse Group's competitive strengths is its strong reputation and brand name. Deutsche Börse Group's reputation could be harmed in many different ways, including by regulatory, governance or technology failures or the activities of members or listed companies whom it does not control. Damage to Deutsche Börse Group's reputation could cause some issuers not to list their securities on Deutsche Börse Group's exchanges, as well as reduce the trading volume on its exchanges, and/or reduce clearing and/or settlement volumes. Any of these events could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Beginning in November 2007, Clearstream initiated the closure of certain Iranian customers' accounts. Clearstream is cooperating with the US Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) as regards a current OFAC investigation under the Iranian Transactions Regulations in relation to certain asset transfers in Clearstream's settlement system.

Upcoming legislation may lead to significant changes in the competitive environment and may have a major impact on the overall market infrastructure and result in increased costs and expenses. Furthermore, uncertainties in connection with the resolution on and implementation of new regulations may reduce the level of activities of Deutsche Börse Group.

On August 16, 2012 the European Market Infrastructure Regulation (EMIR) has become effective. Besides, the EU Commission's proposals for a revision of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (MiFID) and the adoption of a supplementing regulation (MiFIR) have been published in October 2011.

The new rules bring about substantial changes to the market infrastructure framework, however, it is not clear when and subject to which amendments they will enter into force. Among other things EMIR introduces a new authorisation and supervision regime as well as organisational and operational requirements for central counterparties. To comply with the new authorisation requirements, the European central counterparties within the Deutsche Börse Group may need to partially modify and amend their rules. EMIR and MiFID also contain provisions concerning competition and access rights. For example, the reviewed MiFID will grant central counterparties and trading venues further rights to non-discriminatory access to each other. Furthermore, it is possible that the EU Commission will adopt regulations that require exchange operators to allow other central counterparties to clear trades on their exchanges. If such regulations are implemented, Deutsche Börse Group could be required to allow central counterparties, to clear trades conducted through Deutsche Börse Group's exchanges.

Numerous other legal developments and draft proposals may have a significant impact on the business of Deutsche Börse Group. These include amongst others the new European rules on short selling and certain aspects of credit default swaps to regulate short selling activity, new proposals to the capital requirements (Capital Requirements Directive IV), the establishment of a new legal framework for intermediated securities (Securities Law Directive), proposed changes to the market abuse provisions (Market Abuse Directive (MAD review), the proposed regulation of Central Securities Depositories (CSDs), possible changes to the Financial Conglomerates
Directive, European and national rules on algorithmic trading, the harmonisation of settlement across Europe. Furthermore, various legal developments in the United States, inter alia on corporate governance, transparency, oversight and ownership rules for registered national exchanges and other self-regulated organizations may also have a significant impact.

If any of the legislation mentioned above or any other legislation (in particular of the United States of America) that might be adopted in the future adversely affects the legal and regulatory environment surrounding the markets that Deutsche Börse Group operates, or the market perceptions thereof, it may make it difficult for its exchanges and/or clearing houses to compete with other competitors in different jurisdictions. Additionally, the reforms of the legislative framework lead to uncertainties in the context of the regulatory framework for financial markets and Deutsche Börse Group's listings, trading, market data, clearing and settlement businesses, which may reduce the level of activities of Deutsche Börse Group.

Deutsche Börse Group is highly dependent upon the levels and nature of activity on its exchanges and clearing houses. It is expected that market participants will change their behaviour in response to these new regulations. To the extent that the above regulatory changes cause market participants to reduce the levels or restrict the nature of activity on Deutsche Börse Group's exchanges, and/or clearing houses, the business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations of Deutsche Börse Group may be adversely affected.

In the post-trade environment, the European Commission’s CSD Regulation may have a major impact on the conduct of CSD business in the European Union. The regulation introduces an obligation of dematerialisation for most securities, harmonised settlement periods for most transactions in such securities, settlement discipline measures and common rules for CSDs. CSDs such as Clearstream that also conduct ancillary banking business may have to ensure a greater level of separation between the two sets of services. If and when legislative proposals are adopted, and/or if any other legislation relevant to Deutsche Börse Group's business is adopted or amended, this could adversely impact the businesses of Deutsche Börse Group in various and significant ways and could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Deutsche Börse Group operates in a highly regulated industry that is constantly developing and may be subject to censures, fines and other legal proceedings if it fails to comply with its legal and regulatory obligations.

Deutsche Börse Group operates in a highly regulated industry and is subject to extensive regulation, including competition and antitrust laws. The securities industry, as well as the banking and financial services industry, are subject to extensive governmental regulation and could become subject to increased regulatory scrutiny. The failure to comply with these requirements could result in significant sanctions. As the scope of Deutsche Börse Group's business expands, it may also become subject to oversight by additional regulatory bodies. In addition, there has been and may continue to be an increased demand for more regulation and stricter oversight. This may lead to the passage of legislation and implementation of regulation which may impose excessive regulatory burdens.

As a result, Deutsche Börse Group may sustain losses related to a failure to comply with new or existing laws or regulations. Deutsche Börse Group may also sustain losses if contracts must be renegotiated or if contract terms must be altered as a result of new laws, regulations, or court decisions. Additionally, Deutsche Börse Group may have greater responsibility for preventing illegal activities, such as fraud, money laundering, violations of competition regulations or breaches of banking secrecy and face increased financial exposure or penalties related to an increased responsibility as a result of new laws or regulations. Furthermore, non-compliance or inadequate compliance with new or existing laws, inadequate contract terms or court decisions not adequately observed in customary business practice as well as fraud could lead to losses.

Regulators are vested with broad enforcement powers over exchanges and clearing houses in their respective jurisdictions, including powers to censure, fine, issue cease-and-desist orders, prohibit an exchange or clearing house from engaging in some of its operations or suspend or revoke an exchange's or a clearing house's recognition, license or registration. In the case of actual or alleged non-compliance with regulatory requirements, Deutsche Börse Group's exchanges or clearing houses could be subject to investigations and administrative or judicial proceedings that may result in substantial penalties, including revocation of an exchange's or a clearing house's recognition, license or registration. Any such investigation or proceeding, whether successful or unsuccessful, would result in substantial costs and diversions of resources, could negatively impact Deutsche Börse Group's reputation and could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, action by any of Deutsche Börse Group's regulators requiring it to limit or otherwise change its operations, or prohibiting it from engaging in certain activities, could adversely affect its business and cash flows, financial condition and operating results.

Regulatory developments adversely affecting Deutsche Börse Group's businesses and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations could also result from court rulings such as the ruling of the German Federal Court of Justice (Bundesgerichtshof) on the permitted scope of usage of index trademarks.

Deutsche Börse Group may face competitive disadvantages, or may lose or impede its business opportunities, if it does not receive necessary or timely regulatory approvals for new business initiatives.

Deutsche Börse Group operates exchanges and/or clearing houses in Germany, the United States, the United Kingdom and Switzerland. Regulators in each of these countries regulate exchanges and clearing houses through the adoption and enforcement of rules governing the trading activities, business conduct and financial responsibility of such exchanges and clearing houses and entities and individuals associated with them. All of Deutsche Börse Group's initiatives in these jurisdictions with regulatory implications must be approved by the relevant authorities in each of these countries. In particular, Deutsche Börse Group may from time to time seek to engage in new business activities, some of which may require changes to its or its exchanges' and clearing houses' organisational documents or rules that may also require approvals.

Any delay or denial of a requested approval could cause Deutsche Börse Group to lose business opportunities, slow its ability to integrate its different markets or slow or impede its ability to change its governance practices. Deutsche Börse Group's competitive position could be significantly weakened if its competitors are able to obtain regulatory approval for new functionalities faster, or with less cost or difficulty, or if approval is not required for Deutsche Börse Group's competitors but is required for Deutsche Börse Group. In addition, as Deutsche Börse Group seeks to expand its product base, it could become subject to the oversight of additional regulatory bodies. In particular, the need for the three new independent European agencies (ESMA, EBA and EIOPA) to become fully operational and the dialogue they will have to put in place with the national competent regulators could slow the process and the implementation of any new measures. As a consequence, any delay or denial of requested approvals could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Similar risks could arise if the banking and financial services institutions operated by Deutsche Börse Group do not receive necessary or timely regulatory approvals for its new business initiatives.

Deutsche Börse Group's obligations in connection with its regulatory functions as exchange operator in Germany could limit its funding resources.

Pursuant to Section 5 para. 1 of the German Stock Exchange Act (Börsengesetz), operators of German exchanges must provide certain funds to the exchanges operated by them. Therefore, Deutsche Börse Group, as operator of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, is required to provide the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, at the request of its management, with staff and financial resources as well as the means necessary for the operation and further development of its business. This applies accordingly to Eurex Frankfurt AG as operator of Eurex Deutschland Exchange, European Energy Exchange AG (EEX) and EEX Power Derivatives GmbH as operators of EEX and Tradegate Exchange GmbH as operator of Tradegate Exchange. The obligation to fund these regulatory functions could limit Deutsche Börse Group's funding resources, Deutsche Börse Group's ability to reduce its expense.
structure, and could limit its ability to invest in or pursue other opportunities that may be beneficial to its shareholders, which could in turn have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group's business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Future acquisitions, partnerships and joint ventures may require significant resources and/or result in significant unanticipated costs or liabilities.

Deutsche Börse Group may also seek to grow its business by making acquisitions or entering into partnerships or joint ventures, which may be material. The market for acquisition targets and strategic alliances is highly competitive, particularly in respect of the size of potential acquisition targets due to the increasing consolidation in the industry, which could adversely affect Deutsche Börse Group’s ability to find acquisition targets or strategic partners consistent with its objectives. In pursuing its strategy, consistent with industry practice, Deutsche Börse Group may routinely engage in discussions with industry participants regarding potential strategic transactions. Such transactions may be financed by the issuance of additional securities, or the incurrence of indebtedness, taking loans or any combination thereof. Deutsche Börse Group could face financial risks associated with incurring indebtedness, such as reducing its liquidity, curtailing its access to financing markets and requiring the service of such indebtedness. In addition, acquisitions, partnerships and joint ventures may require significant managerial attention, which may be diverted from Deutsche Börse Group’s other operations.

These capital and managerial commitments may impair the operation of Deutsche Börse Group’s business. Furthermore, any future acquisitions or partnerships could entail a number of additional risks, including increased regulation and exposure to unanticipated liabilities, all of which could have a material adverse effect on Deutsche Börse Group’s business and cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

The loss of key personnel may adversely affect Deutsche Börse Group's business.

Deutsche Börse Group's success is dependent upon the contributions of qualified personnel. This applies to all of its business segments, particularly to the information technology division. There is surplus demand in the employment market for specialists in the information technology field, and the Group competes for employees with a large number of other enterprises in the technology industry. Should Deutsche Börse Group be unsuccessful in recruiting and retaining an adequate number of qualified employees in the future, this could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks relating to the Notes

An investment in the Notes involves certain risks associated with the characteristics of the Notes. Such risks could result in principal or interest not being paid on time or at all by the Issuer and/or a material impairment of the market price of the Notes. The following is a description of risk factors in relation to the Notes.

Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors

Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of such investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

(i) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Prospectus;

(ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation and the investment(s) it is considering, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;

(iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes;

(iv) understand thoroughly the terms of the Notes; and

(v) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.
Long-term securities, Risk of Early Redemption

The Notes will be redeemed on 5 October 2022, unless they have been previously redeemed. The Issuer is under no obligation to redeem the Notes at any time before this date. The holders of the Notes (each a "Holder") have no right to call for their redemption except following a Change of Control or the occurrence of an Event of Default (each as further described in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes). At the Issuer's option, the Notes may be redeemed pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes for tax reasons. In the event that the Issuer exercises the option to call and redeem the Notes, the Holders might suffer a lower than expected yield and might not be able to reinvest the funds on the same terms.

No limitation on issuing further debt

There is no restriction on the amount of debt which the Issuer may issue ranking equal to the obligations under or in connection with the Notes. Such issuance of further debt may reduce the amount recoverable by the Holders upon insolvency or winding-up of the Issuer.

Liquidity risk

There is currently no secondary market for the Notes. Application has been made for the Notes to be admitted to listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and to trading on the regulated market of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and the subsegment of the regulated market with further post-admission duties (Prime Standard) and for the Notes to be also admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. There can, however, be no assurance that a liquid secondary market for the Notes will develop or, if it does develop, that it will continue. In an illiquid market, an investor may not be able to sell his Notes at any time at fair market prices. The possibility to sell the Notes might additionally be restricted by country specific reasons.

Fixed Rate Notes

The Notes bear interest at a fixed rate. A holder of a fixed interest rate note is exposed to the risk that the price of such note may fall because of the overall economic development, general inflation, a decrease in the demand for the Notes or changes in the market interest rate. While the nominal interest rate of a fixed interest rate note is fixed during the life of such note or during a certain period of time, the current interest rate on the capital market (market interest rate) typically changes on a daily basis. As the market interest rate changes, the price of such note changes in the opposite direction. If the market interest rate increases, the price of such note typically falls, until the yield of such note is approximately equal to the market interest rate. If the market interest rate falls, the price of a fixed interest rate note typically increases, until the yield of such note is approximately equal to the market interest rate. Holders should be aware that movements of the market interest rate can adversely affect the price of the Notes and can lead to losses for the Holders if they sell Notes during the period in which the market interest rate exceeds the fixed interest rate of the Notes.

Currency Risk

The Notes are denominated in euro. If such currency represents a foreign currency to a Holder, such Holder is particularly exposed to the risk of changes in currency exchange rates which may affect the yield of such Notes measured in the Holder's currency. Changes in currency exchange rates result from various factors such as macroeconomic factors, speculative transactions and interventions by central banks and governments.

In addition, government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable currency exchange rate. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Special Investment Risks

The Issuer may be required to withhold U.S. tax in respect of Notes issued after 1 January 2013 pursuant to the foreign account provisions of the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 – FATCA.
TheIssuer and other non-U.S. financial institutions through which payments on the Notes are made may be required to withhold U.S. tax at a rate of 30 per cent. on all, or a portion of, payments made after December 31, 2016 in respect of (i) any Notes issued or materially modified on or after 1 January 2013 and (ii) any Notes which are treated as equity for U.S. federal tax purposes, whenever issued pursuant to the foreign account provisions ("FATCA") of the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010. This withholding tax may be triggered if (i) the Issuer is a foreign financial institution ("FFI") (as defined in FATCA) which enters into and complies with an agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") to provide certain information on its account holders making the Issuer a "Participating FFI", (ii) the Issuer has a positive "passthru percentage" (as defined in FATCA), and (iii) (a) an investor does not provide information sufficient for the relevant Participating FFI to determine whether the investor is subject to withholding under FATCA, or (b) any FFI through which payment on such Notes is made is not a Participating FFI or otherwise exempt from FATCA withholding.

The application of FATCA to interest, principal or other amounts paid with respect to the Notes is not clear. If an amount in respect of U.S. withholding tax were to be deducted or withheld from interest, principal or other payments on the Notes as a result of FATCA, none of the Issuer, any guarantor, any paying agent or any other person would, pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the deduction or withholding of such tax.

As a result, investors may, if FATCA is implemented as currently proposed by the IRS, receive less interest or principal than expected. Holders of the Notes should consult their own tax advisers on how these rules may apply to payments they receive under the Notes.

The application of FATCA to Notes issued or materially modified on or after 1 January 2013 (or whenever issued, in the case of Notes treated as equity for U.S. federal tax purposes) may be addressed in the relevant Final Terms or a supplement to this Base Prospectus, as applicable.

FATCA IS PARTICULARLY COMPLEX AND ITS APPLICATION TO THE ISSUER, ANY GUARANTOR, THE NOTES AND THE HOLDERS IS UNCERTAIN AT THIS TIME. EACH HOLDER OF NOTES SHOULD CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISER TO OBTAIN A MORE DETAILED EXPLANATION OF FATCA AND TO LEARN HOW THIS LEGISLATION MIGHT AFFECT EACH HOLDER IN ITS PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.

Because the Global Notes are held by or on behalf of Clearstream, investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with the Issuer.

The Notes will be represented by one or more Global Notes. Such Global Notes will be deposited with Clearstream. Investors will not be entitled to receive definitive Notes. Clearstream will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Clearstream and the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under the Notes by making payments to Clearstream or to its order for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note must rely on the procedures of Clearstream to receive payments under the Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

Risks in connection with the application of the German Act on Issues of Debt Securities (Gesetz über Schuldverschreibungen aus Gesamtemissionen)

A Holder is subject to the risk of being outvoted and of losing rights towards the Issuer against his will in the case that Holders agree pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to amendments of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes by majority vote according to the German Act on Issues of Debt Securities (SchVG). In the case of an appointment of a joint representative for all Holders a particular Holder may lose, in whole or in part, the possibility to enforce and claim his rights against the Issuer regardless of other Holders.
The market value of the Notes could decrease if the creditworthiness of the Group worsens

If the likelihood that the Issuer will be in a position to fully perform all obligations under the Notes when they fall due decreases, for example, because of the materialisation of any of the risks regarding the Issuer and/or the Group, the market value of the Notes will suffer. In addition, even if the likelihood that the Issuer will be in position to fully perform all obligations under the Notes when they fall due actually has not decreased, market participants could nevertheless have a different perception. In addition, the market participants' estimation of the creditworthiness of corporate debtors in general or debtors operating in the same business as the Group could adversely change. If any of these risks occurs, third parties would only be willing to purchase Notes for a lower price than before the materialisation of mentioned risk. Under these circumstances, the market value of the Notes will decrease.
USE OF PROCEEDS

In connection with the offering of the Notes, the Issuer will receive net proceeds of approximately EUR [●]. The Issuer intends to use the net proceeds for refinancing existing indebtedness and general corporate purposes of the Group.

Dies gilt nicht insoweit, als die dingliche Sicherheit für Kapitalmarktvorkämmlichkeiten eines Unternehmens bestellt ist, das mit der Emittentin verschmolzen oder von der Emittentin erworben worden ist und diese Sicherheit im Zeitpunkt der Verschmelzung oder des Erwerbs schon bestanden hat, nicht zum Zwecke der Finanzierung der Verschmelzung oder des Erwerbs eingeräumt wurde und nach der Verschmelzung oder dem Erwerb in ihrem Umfang nicht erweitert und nicht verlängert wird.

This does not apply to the extent any Encumbrance was created for any Capital Market Indebtedness of a company which has merged with the Issuer or which has been acquired by the Issuer, provided that such Encumbrance was already in existence at the time of the merger or the acquisition, was not created for the purpose of financing the merger or the acquisition and is not increased in amount and not extended following the merger or the acquisition.

(b) So long as any Notes remain outstanding, but only up to the time all amounts of principal and interest have been placed at the disposal of the Principal Paying Agent, the Issuer further undertakes to procure to the extent legally possible, that its Principal Subsidiaries will not create or permit to subsist any Encumbrance upon any or all of its present or future assets to secure any present or future Capital Market Indebtedness of the relevant Principal Subsidiary or any third party. This does not apply to the extent any Encumbrance was created for any Capital Market Indebtedness of an existing subsidiary which becomes a Principal Subsidiary during the term of the Notes, provided that such Encumbrance was already in existence at this time and is not increased in amount and not extended. Furthermore, sentence 1 of this § 3(2)(b) does not apply to the extent any Encumbrance was created for any Capital Market Indebtedness of a company which has merged with the Principal Subsidiary or which has been acquired by the Principal Subsidiary, provided bestanden hat und danach in ihrem Umfang nicht erweitert und nicht verlängert wird. Satz 1 dieses § 3(2)(b) gilt ferner nicht insoweit, als die dingliche Sicherheit für Kapitalmarktvbdebindlichkeiten eines Unternehmens bestellt ist, das mit der wesentlichen Tochtergesellschaft verschmolzen oder von der wesentlichen Tochtergesellschaft erworben worden ist und diese Sicherheit im Zeitpunkt der Verschmelzung oder des Erwerbs schon bestanden hat, nicht zum Zwecke der Finanzierung der Verschmelzung oder des Erwerbs eingeräumt wurde und nach der Verschmelzung oder dem Erwerb in ihrem Umfang nicht erweitert und nicht verlängert wird.

§ 4 INTEREST

(1) Interest and Interest Payment Dates.

Unless previously redeemed in accordance with these Conditions of Issue, the Notes shall bear interest on their principal amount at the rate of [●] per cent. per annum from and including 5 October 2012 (the "Interest Commencement Date") to but excluding such date as principal and interest
Schuldverschreibungen dem Clearingsystem zur Verfügung gestellt worden sind. Die Verzinsung des ausstehenden Nennbetrages ab dem Tag der Fälligkeit (einschließlich) bis zum Tag der Rückzahlung der Schuldverschreibungen (ausschließlich) erfolgt zum gesetzlich festgelegten Satz für Verzugszinsen.

(3) Berechnung der Zinsen.

Sind Zinsen für einen Zeitraum zu berechnen, der kürzer als eine Zinsperiode ist oder einer Zinsperiode entspricht, so werden die Zinsen auf der Grundlage der tatsächlichen Anzahl der Tage in dem jeweiligen Zeitraum ab dem ersten Tag des jeweiligen Zeitraums (einschließlich) bis zu dem letzten Tag des jeweiligen Zeitraums (ausschließlich) berechnet, geteilt durch die Anzahl der Tage in der Zinsperiode, in die der jeweilige Zeitraum fällt (einschließlich des ersten Tages der betroffenen Zinsperiode, aber ausschließlich des letzten Tages der betroffenen Zinsperiode).

"Zinsperiode" bezeichnet den Zeitraum ab dem Verzinsungsbeginn (einschließlich) bis zu dem ersten Zinszahlungstag (ausschließlich) und danach ab dem jeweiligen Zinszahlungstag (einschließlich) bis zu dem nächstfolgenden Zinszahlungstag (ausschließlich).

§ 5 RÜCKZAHLUNG UND RÜCKKAUF

Bei Eintritt eines Brutto-Ausgleich-Ereignisses können die Schuldverschreibungen insgesamt, jedoch nicht teilweise, nach Wahl der Emittentin jederzeit (insgesamt, jedoch nicht teilweise) durch eine unwiderrufliche Bekanntmachung gemäß § 11 unter Einhaltung einer Frist von mindestens 30 und höchstens 60 Kalendertagen gekündigt und zu ihrem Nennbetrag zuzüglich bis zum für die Rückzahlung festgesetzten Tag aufgelaufener Zinsen zurückgezahlt werden. Dabei gilt dass:

(i) eine solche Kündigungsbekanntmachung nicht früher als 90 Kalendertage vor dem ersten Kalendertag gemacht werden darf, an dem die Emittentin erstmals verpflichtet wäre, die jeweiligen zusätzlichen Beträge (wie in § 7 beschrieben) in Ansehung fälliger Beträge auf oder in connection with the Notes has been placed at the disposal of the Clearing System.

(3) Berechnung der Zinsen.

Where interest is to be calculated in respect of a period which is shorter than or equal to an Interest Period, the interest will be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the relevant period, from and including the first date in the relevant period to but excluding the last date of the relevant period, divided by the actual number of days in the Interest Period in which the relevant period falls (including the first such day of the relevant Interest Period but excluding the last day of the relevant Interest Period).

"Interest Period" means the period from and including the Interest Commencement Date to but excluding the first Interest Payment Date and thereafter from and including each relevant Interest Payment Date to but excluding the next following Interest Payment Date.

§ 5 REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE

(1) Redemption at maturity.

Unless previously redeemed in whole or in part or purchased and cancelled, the Notes shall be redeemed at their Principal Amount on 5 October 2022 (the "Maturity Date").

(2) Early redemption for tax reasons.

If a Gross-up Event occurs, the Notes may be redeemed (in whole but not in part) at any time, at the option of the Issuer on giving of not less than 30 and not more than 60 calendar days’ irrevocable notice in accordance with § 11 at their Principal Amount, together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption. In such case:

(i) no such notice of redemption may be given earlier than 90 calendar days prior to the earliest calendar day on which the Issuer would be for the first time obliged to pay the additional amounts (as described in § 7) in question on payments due in respect of the Notes; and
(ii) die Emittentin der Hauptzahlstelle vor Abgabe einer solchen Kündigungsmeldung folgende Dokumente übermittelt bzw. deren Übermittlung veranlasst:

(x) eine von zwei ordnungsgemäß bevollmächtigten Vertretern der Emittentin unterzeichnete Bescheinigung, die bestätigt, dass die Emittentin berechtigt ist, die maßgebliche Rückzahlung vorzunehmen, und aus der die Tatsachen hervorgehen, auf deren Grundlage die Voraussetzungen für das Rückzahlungsrecht der Emittentin eingetreten sind; sowie

"Brutto-Ausgleichs-Ereignis" bezeichnet den Fall, dass die Emittentin verpflichtet ist oder verpflichtet sein wird, zusätzliche Beträge (wie in § 7 beschrieben) als Folge einer Änderung oder Ergänzung von Gesetzen oder Vorschriften der Bundesrepublik Deutschland oder einer ihrer Gebietskörperschaften oder Steuerbehörden oder als Folge einer Änderung oder Ergänzung der offiziellen Auslegung oder Anwendung dieser Gesetze oder Vorschriften durch eine gesetzgebende Körperschaft, ein Gericht, eine Steuerbehörde, eine Aufsichtsbehörde oder eine sonstige Behörde (einschließlich des Erlasses von Gesetzen sowie der Bekanntmachung gerichtlicher oder aufsichtsrechtlicher Entscheidungen) zu zahlen, allerdings nur soweit die betreffende Änderung, Ergänzung oder Durchführung an oder nach dem Ausgabetag wirksam wird und die Emittentin die Zahlungsverpflichtung nicht durch das Ergreifen von Maßnahmen vermeiden kann die sie nach Treu und Glauben für angemessen hält.

(3) Rückkauf von Schuldverschreibungen.

Die Emittentin oder Konzerngesellschaften können unter Einhaltung der einschlägigen gesetzlichen Vorschriften jederzeit Schuldverschreibungen im Markt oder anderweitig zu jedem beliebigen Preis kaufen. Derartig erworbbene Schuldverschreibungen können entwertet, gehalten oder wieder veräußert werden.

(y) an opinion of an external legal adviser of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay the additional amounts in question as a result of a Gross-up Event.

"Gross-up Event" means that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts (as described in § 7) as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Federal Republic of Germany or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof, or therein, or as a result of any amendment to, or any change in, any official interpretation or application of any such laws of regulations by any legislative body, court, or taxing authority, governmental agency or regulatory authority (including the enactment of any legislation and the publication of any judicial decision or regulatory determination), provided that the relevant amendment, change or execution becomes effective on or after the Issue Date and provided further that the payment obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking such reasonable measures it (acting in good faith) deems appropriate.

(3) Purchase of Notes.

The Issuer or any Group Entity may, in compliance with applicable laws, at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise and at any price. Such acquired Notes may be cancelled, held or resold.

Business Activities

Deutsche Börse Group's business activities are composed of the following business areas: Xetra, Eurex, Clearstream and Market Data & Analytics and Information Technology.
Xetra supports the trading and listing of cash market securities on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange as well as other European and international markets. Eurex, the derivatives market, provides for the trading of futures and options and Eurex Clearing performs central counterparty clearing and risk management for derivatives, equities, repo, energy and fixed income transactions. Clearstream is responsible for the settlement, safekeeping and administration of securities. The Market Data & Analytics segment produces, collects and distributes financial market data and indices. Deutsche Börse Group's business has no significant seasonality.

Deutsche Börse Group itself operates the cash market of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange. Through its equity investment in Scoach Holding S.A., Deutsche Börse Group also offers trading in structured products (e.g. certificates and warrants). Furthermore, Deutsche Börse Group holds 75 per cent. in Tradegate Exchange GmbH plus 1 per cent., which is held indirectly via Tradegate AG Wertpapierhandelsbank. Tradegate Exchange GmbH operates Tradegate Exchange, a Berlin-based stock exchange specially tailored to the requirements of private investors.

Through Eurex Zürich AG and its subsidiaries, Deutsche Börse Group also operates derivatives markets in Europe (Eurex Deutschland and Eurex Zürich) and the United States (International Securities Exchange, ISE) and offers central counterparty clearing services (Eurex Clearing AG) as well as wholesale fixed-income securities trading (Eurex Bonds GmbH) and a market place for repo transactions (Eurex Repo GmbH).

Post-trade services such as banking, settlement and custody services are handled by subsidiaries of Clearstream Holding AG. These services include transaction settlement, administration and custody of securities as well as global securities financing.

In addition, Deutsche Börse Group sells news, analytics, order book, price and reference data as well as other information relevant for capital markets and develops indices and benchmarks in its subsidiary STOXX Ltd.

Deutsche Börse Group and Clearstream Services S.A. develop and operate Deutsche Börse Group's IT infrastructure.

Xetra

Xetra is the electronic multi asset class trading system for the cash market of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange as well as other European exchanges. Deutsche Börse Group's cash market provides one of the most comprehensive ranges of tradable securities from a single source. With over 11,000 shares from both German and international issuers, more than 22,000 fixed-income securities, around 1,400 exchange traded products, approximately 2,800 actively managed retail funds, investors from all over Europe can buy and sell financial products in several important asset classes in a clearly regulated and transparent marketplace. Integrated clearing by the central counterparty of Eurex Clearing AG and settlement by Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main, help to ensure that all stock exchange transactions are fulfilled.

In 2011, the Xetra segment contributed €275.1 million to the Deutsche Börse Group revenues, representing 12 per cent. thereof compared to €262.3 million in 2010, representing 12 per cent. of the Deutsche Börse Group revenues. In the first six months of 2012, the Xetra segment contributed €120.8 million to the Deutsche Börse Group revenues, representing 11 per cent. thereof compared to €138.5 million in the first six months of 2011. Deutsche Börse Group continues to expand its range of securities that are available via the Xetra system. The goal is a liquid, multi asset class offering to investors in a single European trading venue.

Xetra is a fully electronic trading system for the cash market that automatically matches buy and sell orders and seeks to execute trades at the best possible conditions. Xetra operates independently of a trader's location and offers electronic access to the order book that contains buy and sell orders. Approximately 4,500 traders representing 255 trading members firms from 18 countries are connected to Xetra.

Xetra is also a flexible trading system with various hybrid market models combining quote and order driven trading. Trading on Xetra includes both continuous trading for liquid securities and specialist trading for a broad multi asset class product universe.
During continuous trading, the Xetra system immediately fixes the price based on the posted orders in accordance with the "highest trading volume principle" (Meistausführungsprinzip): orders with the highest buy or lowest sell limit are executed first. If limits are the same, they are executed by time priority. An open order book is central to continuous trading on Xetra, with market participants having unrestricted access to the order book. For each new order, the system immediately checks whether it can be executed against existing orders, applying the principle of price-time priority. The electronic open order book of the Xetra system allows for greater trading volume and increased market liquidity.

In the continuous auction (or specialist model), specialists on the trading floor provide liquidity through matching quotes in a continuous auction model.

The trading floor of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange will continue to operate as the central location for all specialists on the Xetra system and as the focus point for all media activities with more than 60 TV broadcasts daily.

Xetra not only serves as an electronic trading platform for the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, but also the CEESEG (Central and Eastern European Stock Exchange Group) with the Vienna Stock Exchange, the Central European Gas Hub (CEGH), and the Ljubljana Stock Exchange switched to Xetra as well as the CEESEG-partner exchanges in Prague and Budapest which are planning to switch to Xetra as their trading system. Furthermore, the Irish Stock Exchange, the Bulgarian Stock Exchange and the Malta Stock Exchange are using Xetra. This concept of in-sourcing system services allows the fixed costs for systems operation to be spread among a higher number of users and allows members to access a standardised technical Xetra infrastructure with further products and markets.

Eurex

Eurex Frankfurt AG and Eurex Zürich AG operate the Eurex exchanges in Germany and Switzerland, respectively. In addition, the segment Eurex consists of Eurex Clearing AG, the International Securities Exchange and the multilateral trading facilities (MTFs), Eurex Bonds GmbH and Eurex Repo GmbH, among others.

Eurex Exchanges

The Eurex exchange business is carried out by Eurex Zürich AG and Eurex Frankfurt AG via their respective exchanges in Europe Eurex Zürich and Eurex Deutschland as well as by International Securities Exchange Holdings Inc. in the U.S.
Eurex is one of the world's leading derivatives marketplaces (source: Futures & Options Word (FOW) Awards 2011, World Federation of Exchanges (WFE) 2011 Market Highlights). The exchanges Eurex Deutschland and Eurex Zürich are operated on a single trading platform with a product suite comprising the world's most actively traded and liquid markets. Eurex offers some 1,800 derivatives products with more than 190,000 variations (Series). Eurex offers interest rate and equity index derivatives and as well as broad offerings in single equity products and non-financial asset classes, including commodities. Besides Euro (EUR)-denominated products, Eurex also offers derivatives denominated in Swiss francs (CHF), U.S. dollars (USD) Korean Won (KRW) and Pounds sterling (GBP). Owing to their joint electronic trading platform, uniform exchange rules and a joint central counterparty (Eurex Clearing AG), Deutsche Börse Group believes that Eurex Exchanges are perceived by market participants as essentially a single marketplace. In 2011, Eurex served more than 430 member firms located in 30 countries worldwide.

In 2012, Eurex will introduce a completely new Eurex trading architecture for derivatives trading. The production launch of the new Eurex trading architecture is scheduled for December 2012, followed by a product migration phase during which products will be moved in a stepwise approach from the current Eurex system to the new trading platform.

The new platform is designed to meet the highest demands for throughput, reliability and ultra-low latency and offers a number of functional enhancements and extensions. The new trading platform will also introduce a new interface landscape replacing the existing trading interfaces while proven design concepts will be kept.

The ISE operates a U.S. options exchange and offers options trading on over 2,000 underlying equity, ETFs, index and FX products. Launched in 2000 as the first fully electronic U.S. options exchange, ISE developed a regulated marketplace for advanced screen-based trading.

ISE sought to transform the options industry by creating efficient markets through innovative market structure and technology. Regulated by the SEC and a member-owner of The Options Clearing Corporation, ISE seeks to provide investors with a transparent marketplace for price and liquidity discovery on centrally cleared options products. ISE continues to expand its marketplace through the ongoing development of enhanced trading functionality, new products, and market data services. As a complement to its options business, ISE has expanded its reach into multiple asset classes through strategic investments in financial marketplaces that it believes foster technology innovation and market efficiency. Through minority investments, ISE participates in the securities lending and equities markets. ISE operates as an independent subsidiary under its own management team and brand. ISE also licenses its proprietary Longitude technology for trading in event-driven derivative markets.

Together, Eurex and ISE form a global liquidity network with daily trading volumes exceeding 10 million contracts across a growing range of asset classes.

Eurex Clearing

Eurex Clearing AG is the clearinghouse within Deutsche Börse Group. It offers fully automated and straight-through post-trade services for derivatives, equities, repo, energy and fixed income transactions. In its role as a central counterparty, Eurex Clearing AG acts as a buyer to all sellers and as a seller to all buyers, thereby seeking to minimise counterparty risk and maximise operational efficiency. Eurex Clearing AG offers trade management functions, risk management as well as collateral and delivery management services with a focus to increase market safety and integrity. Eurex Clearing AG provides leading risk management services such as comprehensive pre-trade risk limits and it was the first leading central counterparty worldwide to offer risk management and margining data in real-time to its trading and clearing members.

Eurex Clearing AG is a wholly owned subsidiary of Eurex Frankfurt AG and acts as the central counterparty for the Eurex Exchanges (except for International Securities Exchange), Eurex Bonds GmbH, Eurex Repo GmbH, the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and the Irish Stock Exchange. Eurex Clearing AG also acts as the central counterparty for transactions of the EEX that are conducted under a separate clearing link agreement with the ECC. ECC is a clearinghouse that provides a range of services for exchange and OTC transactions in energy and related products.
As central counterparty, ECC takes a position between the buyer and seller, thereby collateralising the transactions and assuming for each party the risk of default by the other party. In July 2009, Eurex Clearing AG launched a clearing service for OTC traded credit default swaps, called Eurex Credit Clear.

Eurex Clearing AG provides clearing in EUR, CHF, USD, KRW and GBP and serves more than 140 clearing member firms located in 16 European countries and manages a collateral pool of approximately €50 billion on average in 2011. In 2011, Eurex Clearing AG processed more than 2.2 billion (2010: 2.0 billion) transactions.

Eurex Clearing AG is a stock company incorporated in Germany and licensed as a credit institution under supervision of BaFin pursuant to the Banking Act (Gesetz über das Kreditwesen). The Financial Services Authority has granted Eurex Clearing AG status as a Recognised Overseas Clearing House in the United Kingdom. Eurex Clearing AG was granted Multilateral Clearing Organization status by the CFTC on 31 July 1999 and has signed an exemption letter with the SEC that allows to offer clearing of certain credit default swaps in the U.S.

On 1 January 2005, Deutsche Börse Group issued a letter of comfort in favor of Eurex Clearing AG. In this letter of comfort, Deutsche Börse Group commits itself to provide upon first request 85 per cent. of the financial means, which Eurex Clearing AG requires to perform its duties as a central counterparty for certain kinds of trades – as defined in the letter of comfort – cleared through its clearing system. Deutsche Börse Group's obligations in connection with this letter of comfort are limited to a maximum amount of €595,000,000.

In anticipation of regulatory reforms planned at EU level, which aim to have central counterparties play a greater role in clearing and risk management of on- and off-exchange derivatives trading, Eurex Clearing AG introduced new initiatives as a part of a comprehensive expansion of its services.

In August 2011, Eurex Clearing AG announced the introduction of the "Individual Clearing Model", the first major element of its new industry-leading service to segregate the collateral of the clearing house's users. The new clearing model allows the collateral and positions of participating customers to be transferred immediately in the event that a clearing member defaults, meaning that customers' assets are better protected and that they are able to continue their trading activities without interruption.

Eurex Clearing is replacing the existing margin methodology (risk-based margining) with a new portfolio-based margin approach - called Eurex Clearing Prisma - which will allow for cross margining for listed derivatives business and between listed and OTC derivatives business cleared through Eurex Clearing. Eurex Clearing Prisma offers benefits such as higher capital efficiencies, more accurate risk netting effects, a greater accuracy, a methodology designed to enable stable margin requirements, a consistent risk and default management process and a broader range of instruments covered with faster time-to-market.

With the upcoming new EurexOTC Clear services for interest rate swaps and equity OTC products, Eurex Clearing is meeting future requirements on market participants in relation to risk management and security as well as transparency in OTC derivatives trading, and is opening up a new business area. The new service was developed in close consultation with market participants.

Eurex Bonds

The fixed-income securities business is carried out by Eurex Bonds GmbH. It was founded in October 2000 as a joint initiative of Eurex Frankfurt AG and leading financial institutions. The organisation is operated as a joint venture with the purpose of establishing and operating an electronic platform for fixed-income securities and basis trading in debt issues.

Eurex Bonds GmbH operates a MTF and provides participants with an electronic platform for off-exchange, wholesale trading in European fixed-income securities. Also, the Eurex Bonds trading platform has been linked into Eurex futures market and Eurex Clearing AG with the result that a direct link between spot and futures markets is available that enables electronic basis trading of fixed-income securities via a central order book. The necessary liquidity in the fixed-income securities and basis trading markets is provided by market makers. In addition to Eurex Frankfurt AG, several financial institutions are shareholders of Eurex Bonds GmbH.

Eurex Repo

The repo business is operated by Eurex Repo GmbH. It offers an integrated marketplace for electronic trading, clearing, collateral management and settlement for secured funding and financing. It is one of the leading European marketplaces with more than 320 participants located in 10 countries. In 2011, the average outstanding repo volumes reached €276 billion.

Eurex Repo provides the following five markets: GC Pooling, Swiss Franc Repo, OTC Spot, Euro Repo and SecLend.

GC Pooling was jointly developed by Eurex Repo, Eurex Clearing and Clearstream Banking with the objective to deliver all the benefits of electronic trading, through a well-regarded clearinghouse acting as a central counterparty in combination with a real-time collateral management system to the secured money market. GC Pooling has the advantage of allowing the re-use of received collateral for refinancing within the framework of the German Central Bank (Deutsche Bundesbank) / European Central Bank open market operations. GC Pooling has become a benchmark during the recent financial crisis for efficient secured funding based on a resilient market infrastructure.

The repo market in Swiss francs was launched for Swiss and foreign participants to carry out their funding and collateral management operations directly on the interbank market as well as at the almost daily auctions of the Swiss National Bank (SNB) using the Eurex Repo market infrastructure. In addition, it provides the OTC Spot Market for auctions of new issues of bonds and money market debt register claims from the Swiss Government as well as trading of Swiss National Bank commercial papers.

Furthermore, Eurex Repo operates markets for securities financing. In the Euro Repo Market participants can trade specific securities (special repo) whereas securities lending transactions are being traded in the SecLend Market.

Clearstream

Clearstream Holding AG is the post-trade services arm of Deutsche Börse Group except for clearing which is provided by Eurex Clearing AG. Clearstream Holding AG is a wholly owned subsidiary of Deutsche Börse AG and functions as a German financial holding, owning 100 per cent. of Clearstream International S.A. Subsidiaries of Clearstream International S.A. are the international central securities depository (ICSD) Clearstream Banking S.A., Luxembourg, the IT services provider Clearstream Services S.A., Luxembourg, the German central securities depository (CSD) Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt, and the operational branch Clearstream Operations Prague s.r.o., Prague. Clearstream International S.A. is also a 50% shareholder of LuxCSD S.A., Luxembourg, the CSD for Luxembourg that was incorporated in 2010.

In 2011, the Clearstream segment contributed €775.9 million to the Deutsche Börse Group revenues, representing 35 per cent. thereof compared to €760.7 million in 2010, representing 36 per cent. of the Deutsche Börse Group revenues.

In the first six months of 2012, the Clearstream segment contributed €388.7 million to the Deutsche Börse Group revenues, representing 35 per cent. thereof compared to €383.2 million in the first six months of 2011.

In terms of settlement services, the Clearstream segment seeks to ensure that cash and securities are delivered in a timely manner between trading parties. With respect to the custody of securities, it is responsible for the management, safe-keeping and administration of securities deposited with it. In addition, the segment offers added-value services such as global securities financing and investment funds services. Customers profit from individual services, efficient processing and reduced transaction costs. Clearstream also offers banking services such as securities lending and borrowing. The Clearstream segment is one of Europe's leading suppliers of this post-trading infrastructure for shares and fixed-income securities in national and international trading and since 2003 has been consistently the top-rated ICSD in client-led industry surveys (source: 2012 Tri-Party Securities Financing Survey of International Securities Finance (ISF), 2011 Major Markets Agent Bank Review). It is among the largest providers of securities services worldwide.

The Clearstream segment operates as both an International Central Securities Depository (ICSD) serving the international capital markets and a CSD for German (Clearstream Banking AG) and the Luxembourgish (LuxCSD S.A.) domestic securities. As an ICSD, it handles the settlement and safekeeping of Eurobonds and other internationally traded fixed-income securities and equities across 52 markets. Through its CSDs, it provides the post-trade infrastructure for German and Luxembourgish securities. In the custody business, the average value of securities held in custody at the Clearstream segment in 2011 was €11.1 trillion. In the Clearstream segment's settlement business, the number of settlement transactions in 2011 was 126 million.

Apart from Clearstream's core business of settlement and custody services, which accounted for 72 per cent. of its sales revenue in 2011, Clearstream is constantly working to improve the efficiency of the settlement process. In addition to enhancing the interoperability of electronic communications and counterparty platforms, it also develops new products. Efficient settlement of securities transactions between counterparties at Clearstream Banking, Luxembourg, and Belgium-based ICSD Euroclear Bank takes place via an electronic communications platform, named the Bridge.

In November 2009, Clearstream extended its real-time settlement cycle from 21:00 on settlement day minus one to 18:00 on settlement day CET, enabling better interoperability with local Asia-Pacific markets and improved access and responsiveness within European markets and enabling same day security settlement deadlines in Deutsche Börse Group's Asia-Pacific markets. Clearstream Banking S.A. opened a branch in 2010 in Singapore. The branch complemented the existing Clearstream representative offices in Hong Kong and Tokyo and brings local operational capacity to strengthen Clearstream’s growth in the region.

With the implementation of a suite of client-centric, harmonised, global value added services, Clearstream will be able to deliver a significantly higher level of asset servicing on all securities settled in LuxCSD and the domestic and international markets.

Due to changes in the regulatory landscape and higher requirements to capital management, collateral management services have become a major industry requirement. Financial institutions are seeking liquidity management solutions that providers such as Clearstream deliver. Clearstream has been the top-rated collateral management services provider in specialist industry publications (source: 2012 Tri-Party Securities Financing Survey of International Securities Finance (ISF)) and the company’s investment priorities center around strengthening that leading position.

Clearstream constantly improves its service offerings in the area of global securities financing through the continuous development of Collateral management exchange or "CmaX", a tri-party collateral management system designed to handle larger volumes in less time in the growing repurchase agreement market. The CmaX system offered the first collateral reuse functionality for tri-party repurchase agreements. This new functionality permits collateral recipients to reallocate collateral as a guarantee from one tri-party counterpart to another tri-party exposure as collateral provider, thereby making more collateral available to more customers in the tri-party repurchase agreement market. The collateral management services underwent a radical facelift in the last quarter of 2010 when Clearstream upgraded the current equities solution to a fully fledged, customised service on par with the fixed income offering.

By extending the scope of the value proposition beyond individual services such as triparty repo and securities lending, Clearstream is pursuing the expansion of Deutsche Börse Group's Global Liquidity & Risk Management Hub. The modular service concept of the Liquidity Hub allows clients to move collateral seamlessly between different financing tools and across entities, to access liquidity across currencies, asset classes and time zones to ensure a continuous access to a consolidated source of collateral. Clearstream has also started to white-label its collateral management technology to third parties. Its Liquidity Hub GO (Global Outsourcing) service went live with Brazilian CSD Cetip S.A. in July 2011. Similar arrangements are currently under development with the ASX.
Clearstream has expanded the model to agent banks with its Liquidity Hub Connect services. Clearstream’s decided to join the European Central Bank’s TARGET2-Securities initiative and signed the T2S Framework Agreement on 30 April 2012. T2S is a central pan-European settlement infrastructure platform for the cross-border and domestic settlement of securities against central bank money. 23 central securities depositories (CSDs) in the Eurozone such as Clearstream Banking AG will outsource their settlement to the ECB. The T2S platform is scheduled to go live in 2015 and aims at significantly reducing the fees for cross-border settlement. Clearstream intends to leverage T2S to its benefit. The settlement platform should enable more efficiency and, therefore, greater security and transparency with more possibilities for consolidation of liquidity which will enable greater collateral management optimization. With its German CSD Clearstream Banking AG, Clearstream operates the largest CSD in the Eurozone that will account for approximately 40 per cent. of the future T2S settlement volumes. Clearstream will invest in its product offering as well as in the migration to the new platform in order to enable Clearstream customers to benefit from access through a single entry point to settlement in central bank or commercial bank money, enhanced asset servicing and a consolidated liquidity pool. The objective of its approach to T2S is to enable full advantage to be taken of Clearstream’s collateral management and securities lending products and services. In 2007, Clearstream expanded its services to the investment fund market through its Central Facility for Funds. This post-trade service for investment funds provides delivery versus payment, or ”DVP”, settlement services and reduces operational settlement risk by automating and synchronising the exchange of cash and fund units between transfer agents and funds distributors. Central Facility for Funds provides a central hub available to transfer agents for funds domiciled in Luxembourg, Ireland and more than 10 other jurisdictions as well as to fund product distributors in Europe, Asia and South America. Clearstream’s investment funds division has launched unique industry solutions such as the possibility to trade mutual funds on exchange by connecting the Clearstream order routing platform Vestima to Deutsche Börse’s cash market platform Xetra. Clearstream has also launched the use of investment fund shares as collateral.

Market Data & Analytics

In 2011, the Market Data & Analytics segment contributed €236.4 million to the 2011 Deutsche Börse Group revenues, representing 11 per cent. thereof, compared to €224.6 million in 2010, representing 11 per cent. of the 2010 Deutsche Börse Group revenues.

In the first six months of 2012, the Market Data & Analytics segment contributed €119.1 million to the Deutsche Börse Group revenues, representing 11 per cent. thereof compared to €116.6 million in the first six months of 2011.

The products offered by the segment’s business areas are aimed at three customer groups: Firstly, issuers, who mainly use indices of Market Data & Analytics as underlying values for financial products (e.g. futures, options, ETFs, structured products); secondly, front offices of investors, brokers, trading desks, algo traders, and investment advisors, who use real-time price- and order book information or other market moving signals to make their buy- or sell-decisions and recommendations; and thirdly, middle and back offices of securities trading houses, which require accurate instrument reference data for risk management activities and error-free settlement.

Issuer Data & Analytics

Issuer Data, Market Data & Analytics develops, calculates, markets and distributes more than 10,600 indices in a variety of asset classes. Strategic index development is focused on clear and concise index rules, transparency and tradability. As a result, Deutsche Börse Group indices in particular meet the needs of investors, financial market product developers and issuers, as they are attractive underlyings for derivative financial instruments.

For the German equity market, Deutsche Börse Group operates the DAX, MDAX, SDAX and TecDAX selection indices. In addition, the group offers selected global indices under the brand DAXglobal, such as the DAXglobal BRIC, as well as strategy indices named DAXplus (e.g. Covered Call, DAXplus Protective Put). Furthermore, Deutsche Börse Group produces a broad variety of fixed income and commodity indices.
In order to expand its international index business, Deutsche Börse and its Swiss partner SIX Group AG acquired the remaining third of the shares in STOXX Ltd. from Dow Jones in December 2009 making them the sole owners of the renowned index provider. The STOXX indices such as the EURO STOXX 50 are some of the best-known indicators for the development of the European securities market. STOXX offers in addition a global suite of equity indices covering both the traditional market cap weighted indices for currently 65 countries, but also innovative non-market cap weighted strategy indices across the globe.

After the crisis in 2009, the index business market improved significantly: non-current assets in ETFs on Deutsche Börse Group and STOXX amounted to USD 87 billion by end of 2011, alone. Worldwide, approximately 385,000 structured products on STOXX and DAX indices were issued. On the exchange traded derivatives market EURO STOXX 50 and DAX are ranked no. 3 and no. 8, respectively, among the most popular underlyings worldwide.

Front Office Data & Analytics

Capital market information is channeled from a large number of sources proprietary to Deutsche Börse Group as well as third parties. The information is collated into data packages and thus tailored exactly to information requirements of different capital market participants.

Traditionally, Front Office Data & Analytics tracks the trading data of Deutsche Börse Group and its partners' market platforms and sells real-time data on bids, asks, prices, indices, volumes and analytics to clients in the form of data packages. The information products are distributed with minimum latency via proprietary, real-time data feeds. These feeds provide information on more than 1 million instruments, with individual data packages providing information on equities, derivatives, warrants, fixed-income securities, indices and ETFs. This data can be subscribed directly or via more than 450 vendors in approximately 150 countries.

To increase global reach and attractiveness Deutsche Börse Group has started to offer an increasing amount of platform-independent real-time data. With the acquisition of Market News International, Inc. a U.S.-based financial news agency and Need to Know News, LLC in 2009, Deutsche Börse Group has obtained direct access to reports from authorities and supranational organisations such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund. In 2010, Market Data & Analytics focused on expanding its algorithmic trading offerings from these and other new sources. AlphaFlash, one of the fastest data streams for machine-readable publications relevant for trading, was launched in April 2010. It feeds data such as unemployment figures, key interest rate changes and consumer price indices in lowest latency directly into algorithmic trading applications via Deutsche Börse Group's high speed network. To render this service possible on a global basis, Deutsche Börse Group significantly expanded connection facilities worldwide.

Back Office Data & Analytics

Back Office Data & Analytics is the reference data business of Deutsche Börse Group. It consolidates and distributes cleansed price and reference data to the middle and back offices of financial institutions. Included in the reference data packages are individual analyses based on historical data, securities master data, corporate actions and services related to the reporting requirements issued by BaFin. In 2010 Back Office Data & Analytics refocused its reference data activities on instrument data. The area's counterparty reference data business, which was consolidated in Avox Ltd., was sold to DTCC. The remaining business benefited from an expansion of PROPRIS, a subscription service to securities reference data directly sourced from Clearstream and launched in 2009. In addition Deutsche Börse Group uses it’s TRICE service to support securities firms in meeting their statutory reporting requirements.

Information Technology and Data Centers

Deutsche Börse Group IT is broadly comprised of various departments of Deutsche Börse AG, Clearstream Services S.A., Clearstream Banking AG, Deutsche Börse Services s.r.o., DBS Inc. and International Securities Exchange. The relevant IT departments of Clearstream Services S.A. based in Luxembourg, and Clearstream Banking AG, based in Frankfurt am Main, provide expertise in settlement and custody applications, including their development, maintenance and operations. Clearstream Services S.A. is responsible for the operations of the Luxembourg data center for settlement and custody services. Following the merger of Deutsche Börse Systems AG into Deutsche Börse AG, which became effective on 31 March 2011, the relevant segments of Deutsche Börse AG provide IT-related expertise with respect to trading, clearing and market data; they develop, maintain and operate the respective systems and world-wide customer connectivity and operate the German data centers. The IT departments within the International Securities Exchange provide IT related services, such as development, maintenance and operations of the respective systems for the trading of US options. Deutsche Börse Systems Inc. provides operational support for all Deutsche Börse Group services within the U.S. time zone and technical support for U.S.-based customers. Deutsche Börse Services s.r.o. provides predominantly application development support for the complete process chain of Deutsche Börse Group as well as operational support for the trading and clearing services.

With effect from 1 January 2010, Deutsche Börse Group's former segment Information Technology has been integrated into the four current business segments with respect to financial reporting. As a consequence, the external sales revenues and the costs of IT are distributed to these four segments. Deutsche Börse Group IT accounts for approximately one third of Deutsche Börse Group's employees. The teams are located in Frankfurt am Main, Eschborn, Luxembourg, Prague, Chicago and New York.

Currently, Deutsche Börse Group’s IT operates 32 trading venues and exchanges worldwide and provides more than 6,000 connections in 26 countries. The increasing prevalence of real-time modeling and computer-based automated trading (algorithmic trading) continues to drive the demand for detailed order book information and ever faster order and trade processing. Over the recent years, Deutsche Börse Group has been therefore increasingly focused on reducing latency and upgrading the performance and capacity of its trading systems. To increase data center capacity and shorten execution time for algorithmic traders located in Frankfurt am Main, Deutsche Börse and Equinix, a provider of global data center services, have entered a data center services contract. The Equinix data center serves as Deutsche Börse Group's main data center for the Frankfurt am Main area, where electronic trading platforms are deployed and co-location services are offered, where clients place their trading installations in a data center in close proximity to the exchange infrastructure. As of August 2012, 146 customers of Deutsche Börse Group are already using this co-location site.

As a reaction to the increasing demand for detailed order book information and ever faster order and trade processing Eurex and Xetra participants can also choose to use a link with advanced functional and technical features to receive market data even faster and are offered a high-speed access to the most important trading functions, focusing on the administration of orders and quotations. In 2012, the fastest processing time for Eurex orders entered by market participants with an adequate connection was just below 0.5 milliseconds from input by the participant to the exchange and back to the participant.

Latency will be further reduced with the roll-out of Deutsche Börse Group’s new trading platform which was first brought to production readiness in July 2011 for the U.S. equity options trading at ISE and will be rolled-out for Eurex before the end of 2012. This Linux-based system utilises selected open source software components, third-party programs and software that has been developed in-house.

Deutsche Börse Group's IT also improved and accelerated its clearing and post-trade infrastructure. Since 2010, Eurex provided members with more flexible clearing solutions, new risk management functionalities and comprehensive enhancements in the trading layer.

Constant technology upgrades ensure state-of-the art systems catering for the most demanding market needs. For example, the migration of the existing Unix-based IT systems to Linux, which started in 2010, increased system performance and enhanced flexibility, while also reducing operating and maintenance costs. By launching a new-generation processing environment, Clearstream has been enabled to deliver real-time, event-driven settlement. The agreed turnaround time for end-to-end settlement processing was reduced to below five minutes for 99.5 per cent. of instructions, thus helping to ensure more efficient interoperability between the different market participants.
Employees
As of 30 June 2012, Deutsche Börse Group had 3,634 employees (30 June 2011: 3,498). The change was mainly attributable to the ramp up in Prague (+88 employees) and Singapore (+9 employees). Furthermore, the increase is driven by hirings in growth areas such as the Clearing initiatives within the Eurex business unit.

Deutsche Börse Group had an average of 3,623 employees during the first half of 2012 (HY1/2011: 3,487). There was an average of 3,383 full-time equivalent (FTE) employees during the first half of 2012 (HY1/2011: 3,242).

During 2011, 316 employees left Deutsche Börse Group, resulting in a staff turnover rate of less than 9 per cent.

Principal Markets
As a stock exchange organisation and transaction service provider which supports capital market infrastructure through the development and operation of electronic data processing systems, Deutsche Börse offers its customers access to the international capital markets. This focus puts it in competition with marketplace operators in London, Paris, Chicago and New York, among others.

In the cash market, Deutsche Börse, through its Xetra trading platform and the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, operates one of the largest fully electronic cash markets in the world. The Frankfurt Stock Exchange is the largest of the Germany stock exchanges by notional value traded and by number of transactions and ranks among the world's leading stock exchanges, such as the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation (Nasdaq), the London Stock Exchange (LSE) and Euronext.

In the derivatives market, Eurex operates one of the world's most liquid fixed income markets for the trading and clearing of futures and options, along with Euronext.Liffe, CME Group and CBOE. Clearstream, whose major competitor in supplying ICSD services is Euroclear Bank SA/NV, remains one of the leading providers of settlement and custody services for internationally traded bonds and equities, offers its services to over 2,500 customers in over 100 countries and 42 markets worldwide.

As at 31 December 2011, Deutsche Börse Group employed people at 18 locations around the world, primarily in Germany, Luxembourg, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

Investments
Investments of Deutsche Börse Group comprised acquisitions, in particular the acquisition of the remaining 50% stake in Eurex Zürich AG from SIX Group AG on 30th April 2012 and ongoing capital expenditures primarily relating to software, IT infrastructure and building improvement, fixtures and furnishing.

Risk Management

Risk management is an integral component of management and control within Deutsche Börse Group. Deutsche Börse Group seeks to safeguard its continued existence and enables it to achieve its corporate goals by utilising effective and efficient risk management. To this end, Deutsche Börse Group has established a group-wide risk management system, which defines the roles, processes and responsibilities applicable to all staff and organisational entities within Deutsche Börse Group.

Deutsche Börse Group's risk management system is designed to ensure that all management committees within Deutsche Börse Group are able to control the risk profile of the entire Deutsche Börse Group or of single legal entities, as well as significant individual risks, in a timely manner. The aim is to identify developments that could threaten Deutsche Börse Group's interests and to take appropriate countermeasures promptly.

Deutsche Börse Group's risk strategy is based on its business strategy and sets limits specifying the maximum risk permitted for operational risks, financial risks, business risks and overall risk of Deutsche Börse Group. This is done by laying down requirements for risk management, risk control and risk limitation. Deutsche Börse Group seeks to ensure that appropriate measures are taken to avoid, reduce and transfer, or intentionally accept, risk.

The risk strategy is designed to enable risks to be controlled in a timely and adequate manner. Information needed for risk management is captured and assessed on the basis of structured, consistent procedures. The results of the assessment are collated in a reporting system, which is used to systematically analyse and control the risks. Risk reports are prepared on both a regular and an ad-hoc basis, and cover existing as well as potential risks.

Deutsche Börse Group uses a standardised approach – value at risk (VaR) – for measuring and reporting all risks across the Group, including those entities that are not subject to regulation by supervisory authorities. VaR is designed to be a comprehensive way of presenting and controlling the general risk profile that also makes it easier to prioritise risk management measures. It quantifies existing and potential risks and lays down, for the confidence level specified, the maximum cumulative loss Deutsche Börse Group could face if certain loss events materialised over a specific time horizon. In addition to calculating VaR, Deutsche Börse Group performs regular stress test calculations for all material risks.

As of 2009, Deutsche Börse Group has calculated economic capital as its main risk management tool. This is used in addition to other performance indicators to determine the capital needed for business operations so that even extreme and unexpected losses can be covered. Economic capital is calculated using a VaR method for a period of one year and a confidence level of 99.98 per cent. Deutsche Börse Group uses the shareholders' equity recognised under IFRS as the risk cover amount for its economic capital, adjusted by an amount to reflect the risk that intangible assets cannot be liquidated at their carrying amounts in a stress situation. Clearstream Holding Group and Eurex Clearing AG use their regulatory capital as the risk cover amount for their economic capital.

Deutsche Börse Group also calculates economic capital at the level of individual risks compares it against a limit that represents a percentage of the risk cover amount defined for each individual risk and reports the result to the Deutsche Börse management board every three months. This procedure is designed to ensure that the risk limits laid down by the Deutsche Börse management board in its risk strategy are monitored and complied with on a sustainable basis.

Organisation and Methodology

The Deutsche Börse management board is responsible for group-wide risk management. The business areas identify risks and report these to Group Risk Management, a central function with group-wide responsibilities. The business areas also perform risk control, inform their respective management of developments in performance indicators from a risk perspective and seek to continuously improve the quality of the risk management processes.

Group Risk Management works to ensure that the comprehensive risk management system described above is applied and that it complies with the same standards in all companies belonging to Deutsche Börse Group. Group Risk Management assesses all new and existing risks and reports every three months and, if necessary, on an ad hoc basis to the Deutsche Börse management board. In addition, Group Risk Management regularly reports to the Finance and Audit Committee of Deutsche Börse's supervisory board. The full Deutsche Börse supervisory board is informed in writing of the content of these reports.

Independent audits by the Internal Auditing function are designed to ensure that the risk control and risk management functions are adequately organised and that they perform their duties.

The organisational structure described above and the procedures and responsibilities associated with it are designed to enable Deutsche Börse Group to ensure that risk awareness throughout the entire Deutsche Börse Group is well developed and that an active risk culture is in place in practice.

There has been no material adverse change in the prospects of the Issuer since 31 December 2011.

Recent Developments
On 2 February 2012, Deutsche Börse has been officially notified of the decision of the European Commission to prohibit its proposed business combination with NYSE Euronext and accordingly Alpha Beta Netherlands Holding N.V. has published the termination of the exchange offer and unwound the exchange offer by re-booking the tendered Deutsche Börse shares.

On 30 April 2012, Deutsche Börse completed its full acquisition of Eurex Zürich AG with retroactive effect as of 1 January 2012. As of 1 January 2012 Deutsche Börse Group has received all Eurex Group profits as sole shareholder of Eurex Zürich AG. Deutsche Börse Group previously received 85 per cent. of Eurex Group's profits. Deutsche Börse Group is fully acquiring all subsidiaries and shareholdings of Eurex Group, including International Securities Exchange Holdings (ISE), Inc., as well as the stakes in Direct Edge Holdings, LLC and the European Energy Exchange AG. Moreover, it is acquiring all Eurex software and trademark rights.

On 31 May 2012, Eurex Clearing AG, a subsidiary of Deutsche Börse AG, announced that it will cooperate with Barclays, BNP Paribas, Citigroup, Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank, J.P. Morgan and Morgan Stanley to support the launch of its new clearing service for OTC Interest Rate Swaps (IRS). It is planned to enter into binding agreements between the cooperation partners. The new clearing service under the name EurexOTC Clear for IRS will deliver efficient risk management and safety for dealer and client clearing ahead of the start of the clearing obligations in Europe as required by the European Market Infrastructure Regulation (EMIR). The production rollout is planned for the fourth quarter of 2012.

Material Contracts

Acquisition of Eurex/Letter of Comfort
On 30 April 2012, Deutsche Börse AG acquired 100 per cent. in Eurex Global Derivatives AG. Eurex Global Derivatives AG was set up by SIX Swiss Exchange AG as special purpose vehicle for the acquisition of the Swiss derivatives business of Eurex Zürich, in particular the shares in Eurex Zürich AG by Deutsche Börse AG. SIX Swiss Exchange AG previously transferred its 50 per cent share in Eurex Zürich AG to Eurex Global Derivatives AG. Therefore, Deutsche Börse AG now owns directly/indirectly 100 per cent. in Eurex Zürich AG (50% direct, 50% indirect via Eurex Global Derivatives AG which is a 100% subsidiary of Deutsche Börse AG). A letter of comfort previously issued by SIX Swiss Exchange AG in favor of Eurex Clearing AG has been terminated with effect as of 1 January 2012; the letter of comfort issued by Deutsche Börse AG remains currently unaffected. It is intended to amend the letter of comfort of Deutsche Börse AG to cover the former letter of comfort of SIX Swiss Exchange AG.

Bonds and Notes Issued by Deutsche Börse
In 2008, Deutsche Börse issued fixed-rate bonds in a principal amount of €650.0 million that mature in 2013.
Also in 2008, Deutsche Börse issued subordinated fixed-rate to floating-rate bonds in a principal amount of €550.0 million with a final maturity in 2038. Deutsche Börse has a right to call these bonds in 2013, in 2018 and yearly thereafter.
Also in 2008, Deutsche Börse issued various fixed-rate notes under a U.S. private placement. Of these, notes in a principal amount of $170.0 million mature in 2015, $220.0 million mature in 2018 and $70.0 million mature in 2020.

Executive Board members’ agreement
Members of Deutsche Börse AG's Executive Board have a special right of termination in the event of a change of control. If an Executive Board member is asked to stand down within six months of a change of control, he or she is entitled to a severance payment equal to two total annual remuneration payments or the value of the residual term of his or her contract of service, where this is less than two years. This entitlement may be increased to 150 per cent of the severance payment. If an Executive Board member resigns within six months of a change of control because his or her position as a member of the Executive Board is significantly negatively impacted as a result of the change of control, the Supervisory Board may decide at its discretion whether to grant a severance payment of the above mentioned amount. This provision applies to all new contracts for, and reappointments of, members of Deutsche Börse AG's Executive Board since 1 July 2009. For contracts entered into before 1 July 2009, the previous contractual arrangement, whereby Executive Board members are entitled to a severance payment in the event of both their dismissal and their resignation within six months of a change of control, will continue to apply, but at the latest until the members’ next reappointment. This severance payment consists of compensation for the residual term of the contract as well as an additional severance payment of up to twice the annual benefits, whereby the sum of the compensation and severance payment may not exceed five times the annual benefits. According to the agreements with all Executive Board members, a change of control event exists a) if a shareholder or a third party announces, according to Section 21 Securities Trading Act (Wertpapierhandelsgesetz - WpHG), that he – including the voting rights attributed to him according to Section 22 Securities Trade Act – holds more than 50% of the voting rights in Deutsche Börse AG, or b) if an inter-company agreement according to Section 291 German Stock Corporation Act is concluded with Deutsche Börse AG as dependent company or Deutsche Börse AG is incorporated according to Section 319 German Stock Corporation Act, or c) if Deutsche Börse AG is merged according to Section 2 Reorganization of Companies Act (Umwandlungsgesetz) with another existing legal entity or is merged with another legal entity resulting from the merger.

Auditors and Accounting Standards

Deutsche Börse's independent auditors are KPMG AG Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft, Klingelhöferstraße 18, 10785 Berlin. KPMG is a member of the Chamber of Public Accountants (Wirtschaftsprüferkammer).

They have audited the consolidated financial statements of Deutsche Börse Group as of December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2011, respectively, and have issued in each case an unqualified opinion. KPMG has also reviewed the condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the period from 1 January to 30 June 2012 and issued a review report according to § 37w WpHG.

The Issuer's fiscal year corresponds with the calendar year.

The Issuer's interim reports, published on a quarterly basis, contain unaudited consolidated financial statements.

Litigation

Deutsche Börse Group is currently party to a number of legal proceedings within the normal course of its business. The following is an overview of significant legal matters as of the date of this Prospectus. Except for the proceedings cited in this section, there are no governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings pending or threatened, of which Deutsche Börse is aware), nor have there been during the previous 12 months, which may have or have had in the recent past material effects on Deutsche Börse's financial position or profitability.

Peterson vs. Clearstream Banking S.A., Citibank NA.

Following a civil action against Iran, plaintiffs obtained a default judgement against Iran in September 2007 in US courts. In June 2008, plaintiffs commenced enforcement proceedings in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to satisfy this judgement by restraining certain client positions held in Clearstream Banking S.A.’s securities omnibus account with its US depository bank, Citibank NA. The restrained positions are alleged to be beneficially owned by an Iranian government entity. Consistent with its custodial obligations, Clearstream Banking S.A. defended against the restraints and filed a motion to vacate the restraints on various grounds. In October 2010, plaintiffs commenced a lawsuit which seeks to have the restrained positions turned over to plaintiffs. An amended complaint was received by Clearstream Banking S.A. in Luxembourg on 7 January 2011. The amended complaint includes a cause of action directly against Clearstream Banking S.A. alleging US$250 million in connection with purportedly fraudulent conveyances related to the restrained positions. In summer 2011, Citibank NA interpled other potential judgement creditors of Iran into the litigation. At the direction of the court, Clearstream Banking S.A. renewed its motion to vacate the restraints. This renewed motion remains pending before the court. On 7 December 2011, the plaintiffs filed a second amended complaint, adding claims for damages against Clearstream Banking S.A. and others of US$2 billion, plus punitive damages to be determined at trial and attorney’s fees. Clearstream Banking S.A. considers the plaintiffs’ claims against it to be legally and factually without merit, as Clearstream Banking S.A. will establish at the appropriate time in the litigation. Should the case proceed, consistent with its custodial obligations Clearstream Banking S.A. intends to defend itself vigorously to the fullest extent.

Heiser vs. Clearstream Banking S.A.

In addition to existing enforcement proceedings in the Peterson case, another turnover proceedings was filed by another set of plaintiffs (the Heiser plaintiffs) in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York in March 2011 in connection with the enforcement of the Heiser plaintiffs’ separate judgement against Iran. The Heiser plaintiffs are seeking turnover of the same above mentioned client positions held in Clearstream Banking S.A.’s securities omnibus account with its US depository bank. The Heiser plaintiffs have been interpled into the Peterson case and the Heiser case has been stayed pending disposition of certain pending motions in the Peterson case. Clearstream Banking S.A. intends to defend itself vigorously to the fullest extent against this claim consistent with its custodial obligations, if the case proceeds. In addition to the matters described above and in prior disclosures, Deutsche Börse Group is from time to time involved in various legal proceedings that arise in the ordinary course of its business. Deutsche Börse Group recognises provisions for litigation and regulatory matters when it has a present obligation from an event in the past, an outflow of resources with economic benefit to settle the obligation is probable and it is possible to reliably estimate the amount. In such cases, there may be an exposure to loss in excess of the amounts accrued. When these conditions are not met, Deutsche Börse Group does not recognise a provision. As a litigation or regulatory matter develops, Deutsche Börse Group evaluates on an ongoing basis whether the requirements to recognise a provision are met. Deutsche Börse Group may not be able to predict what the eventual loss or range of loss related to such matters will be. Deutsche Börse Group does not believe, based on currently available information, that the results of any of these various proceedings will have a material adverse effect on its financial statements as a whole.

Threatened Litigation

In a letter of its legal advisor dated 14 September 2012 the insolvency administrator of Lehman Brothers Bankhaus AG (LBB AG) has requested payment of approx. €114.5 million plus interest of approx. € 24.1 million from Eurex Clearing AG until 26 September 2012 on the basis of rescission under German insolvency law. The letter included a statement that the insolvency administrator will file a law suit in case of non payment and followed previous discussion over a longer period of time. Eurex Clearing AG considers the claim unfounded and has therefore not paid the requested amount within the requested period.

LBB AG had made payments in the amount of €113.5 million to Eurex Clearing AG in the morning of 15 September 2008. LBB AG was thereby effecting collateral payments (intraday margin payments) of Lehman Brothers International (Europe) (LBIE) from the underlying clearing relationship to Eurex Clearing AG by acting as correspondence bank for the former clearing member LBIE. On 15 September 2008, administration proceedings were opened in the United Kingdom with respect to LBIE and BaFin issued a moratorium with regard to LBB AG in the course of 15 September 2008. On 13 November 2008, insolvency proceedings were opened with regards to LBB AG.

DESCRIPTION OF RULES REGARDING RESOLUTIONS OF HOLDERS

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide that the Holders may consent to amendments or decide on other matters relating to the Notes by way of resolution to be passed by taking votes without a meeting. Any such resolution duly adopted by resolution of the Holders shall be binding on each Holder, irrespective of whether such Holder took part in the vote and whether such Holder voted in favour or against such resolution.

The following is a brief overview of some of the statutory rules regarding the taking of votes without meetings, the passing and publication of resolutions as well as their implementation and challenge before German courts.

Specific rules regarding votes without meeting

The voting shall be conducted by the person presiding over the taking of votes. Such person shall be (i) a notary public appointed by the Issuer, (ii) if the vote was solicited by the joint representative (gemeinsamer Vertreter) of the Holders (the "Holders' Representative"), the Holders' Representative, or (iii) a person appointed by the competent court.

The notice soliciting the Holders' votes shall set out the period within which votes may be cast. During such voting period, the Holders may cast their votes to the person presiding over the taking of votes. Such notice shall also set out in detail the conditions to be met for the votes to be valid.

The person presiding over the taking of votes shall ascertain each Holder's entitlement to cast a vote based on evidence provided by such Holder and shall prepare a list of the Holders entitled to vote. If it is established that no quorum exists, the person presiding over the taking of votes may convene a meeting of the Holders. Within one year following the end of the voting period, each Holder participating in the vote may request a copy of the minutes of such vote and any annexes thereto from the Issuer.

Each Holder participating in the vote may object in writing to the result of the vote within two weeks following the publication of the resolutions passed. The objection shall be decided upon by the person presiding over the taking of votes. If he remedies the objection, the person presiding over the taking of votes shall promptly publish the result. If the person presiding over the taking of votes does not remedy the objection, he shall promptly inform the objecting Holder in writing.

The Issuer shall bear the costs of the votes without meeting and, if a court has authorised the convening of a meeting in accordance with § 9(2) of the Bond Act, also the costs of such proceedings.

Rules regarding Holders' meetings applicable to votes without meeting

In addition, the statutory rules applicable to the convening and conduct of Holders' meetings will apply mutatis mutandis to any vote without a meeting. The following summarises some of such rules.

Meetings of Holders may be convened by the Issuer or the Holders' Representative. Meetings of Holders must be convened if one or more Holders holding five per cent or more of the outstanding Notes so require for specified reasons permitted by statute.

Meetings may be convened not less than 14 days prior to the date of the meeting. Attendance and exercise of voting rights at the meeting may be made subject to prior registration of Holders. The Terms and Conditions of the Notes and the convening notice will provide what proof will be required for attendance and voting at the meeting. The place of the meeting is the place of the Issuer's registered offices, provided, however, that where the Notes are listed on a stock exchange within the European Union or the European Economic Area, the meeting may be held at the place of such stock exchange.

The convening notice shall be made publicly available together with the agenda of the meeting setting out the proposals for resolution.
Each Holder may be represented by proxy. The Holders’ meeting will have a quorum if the persons attending represent at least 50 per cent of the outstanding Notes by value. If the quorum is not reached, a second meeting may be convened at which no quorum will be required, provided that where a resolution may only be adopted by a qualified majority, a quorum requires the presence of at least 25 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes.

All resolutions adopted must be properly published. Resolutions which amend or supplement the Terms and Conditions of the Notes have to be implemented by supplementing or amending the Global Note.

In insolvency proceedings instituted in Germany against the Issuer, the Holders' Representative is obliged and exclusively entitled to assert the Holders’ rights under the Notes. Any resolutions passed by the Holders are subject to the provisions of the Insolvency Code (Insolvenzordnung).

If a resolution constitutes a breach of the statute or the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, Holders may bring an action to set aside such resolution. Such action must be filed with the competent court within one month following the publication of the resolution.
TAXATION

The following is a general overview of certain tax considerations relating to the purchasing, holding and disposing of Notes. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes. In particular, this discussion does not consider any specific facts or circumstances that may apply to a particular Holder. The discussions that follow for each jurisdiction are based upon the applicable laws in force and their interpretation on the date of this Prospectus. These tax laws and interpretations are subject to change that may occur after such date, even with retroactive effect.

Prospective holders of Notes ("Holders") should consult their own tax advisers as to the particular tax consequences of subscribing, purchasing, holding and disposing the Notes, including the application and effect of any federal, state or local taxes, under the tax laws of the Federal Republic of Germany ("Germany"), the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Austria and each country of which they are residents or citizens.

Taxation in the Federal Republic of Germany

The following general overview applies to holders of the Notes, who are solely tax resident in Germany. It is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice.

German resident Holders

Interest income

If the Notes are held as private assets (Privatvermögen) by an individual investor whose residence or habitual abode is in Germany, payments of interest under the Notes are taxed as investment income (Einkünfte aus Kapitalvermögen) at a 25 per cent. flat tax (Abgeltungsteuer) (plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge (Solidaritätszuschlag) thereon and, if applicable to the individual investor, church tax (Kirchensteuer)).

The flat tax is generally collected by way of withholding (see subsequent paragraph – Withholding tax) and the tax withheld shall generally satisfy the individual investor's tax liability with respect to the Notes. If, however, no or not sufficient tax was withheld (e.g., in case there is no German Disbursing Agent), the investor will have to include the income received with respect to the Notes in its income tax return. The flat tax will then be collected by way of tax assessment. The investor may also opt for inclusion of investment income in its income tax return if the aggregated amount of tax withheld on investment income during the year exceeded the investor's aggregated flat tax liability on investment income (e.g., because of available losses carried forward or foreign tax credits). If the investor's total income tax liability on all taxable income including the investment income determined by generally applicable individual progressive tax rates is lower than 25 per cent., the investor may opt to be taxed at individual progressive tax rates with respect to its investment income.

Individual investors are entitled to a saver’s lump sum tax allowance (Sparer-Pauschbetrag) for investment income of 801 Euro per year (1,602 Euro for jointly assessed husband and wife). The saver’s lump sum tax allowance is considered for purposes of the withholding tax (see subsequent paragraph – Withholding tax) if the investor has filed a withholding tax exemption request (Freistellungsauftrag) with the respective credit or financial service institution where the securities deposit account to which the Notes are credited is held. The deduction of related expenses for tax purposes is not possible.

If the Notes are held as business assets (Betriebsvermögen) by an individual or corporate investor who is tax resident in Germany (i.e., a corporation with its statutory seat or place of management in Germany), interest income from the Notes is subject to personal income tax at individual progressive tax rates or corporate income tax (each plus solidarity surcharge thereon) and trade tax. The trade tax liability depends on the applicable trade tax factor of the relevant municipality where the business is located. In case of individual investors the trade tax may, however, be partially or fully creditable against the investor's personal income tax liability depending on the applicable trade tax factor and the investor's particular circumstances. The interest income will have to be included in the investor's personal or corporate income tax return. Any German withholding tax (including surcharges) is generally fully creditable against the investor's personal or corporate income tax liability or refundable, as the case may be.

Withholding tax

If the Notes are kept or administered in a domestic securities deposit account by a German credit or financial services institution (Kredit- oder Finanzdienstleistungsinstitut) or by a German branch of a foreign credit or financial services institution, or by a German securities trading business (Wertpapierhandelsunternehmen) or a German securities trading bank (Wertpapierhandelsbank) (altogether the "Domestic Disbursing Agent") which pays or credits the interest, a 25 per cent. withholding tax, plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon, resulting in a total withholding tax charge of 26.375 per cent., is levied on the interest payments. The applicable withholding tax rate is in excess of the aforementioned rate if church tax is collected for the individual investor.

Capital gains from sale or redemption

Subject to the saver's lump sum tax-allowance for investment income described under the paragraph Interest income above, capital gains from the sale or redemption of the Notes held as private assets are taxed at the 25 per cent. flat tax (plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable to the individual investor, church tax). The capital gain is determined as the difference between the proceeds from the sale or redemption of the Notes and the acquisition costs. Expenses directly and factually related (unmittelbarer sachlicher Zusammenhang) to the sale or redemption are taken into account. Otherwise, the deduction of related expenses for tax purposes is not possible.

Where the Notes are acquired and/or sold in a currency other than Euro, the acquisition costs will be converted into Euro at the time of acquisition, the sales proceeds will be converted in Euro at the time of sale, and only the difference will then be computed in Euro.

Losses from the Notes held as private assets are tax-recognised irrespective of the holding period of the Notes. The losses may, however, not be used to offset other income like employment or business income but may only be offset against investment income subject to certain limitations. Losses not utilised in one annual assessment period may be carried forward into subsequent assessment periods but may not be carried back into preceding assessment periods.

The flat tax is generally collected by way of withholding (see subsequent paragraph – Withholding tax) and the tax withheld shall generally satisfy the individual investor's tax liability with respect to the Notes. With respect to the return filing, investors shall refer to the description under paragraph Interest income above.

If the Notes are held as business assets (Betriebsvermögen) by an individual or corporate investor that is tax resident in Germany, capital gains from the Notes are subject to personal income tax at individual progressive tax rates or corporate income tax (plus solidarity surcharge thereon) and trade tax. The trade tax liability depends on the applicable trade tax factor of the relevant municipality where the business is located. In case of an individual investor the trade tax may, however, be partially or fully creditable against the investor's personal income tax liability depending on the applicable trade tax factor and the investor's particular circumstances. The capital gains will have to be included in the investor's personal or corporate income tax return. Any German withholding tax (including surcharges) is generally fully creditable against the investor's personal or corporate income tax liability or refundable, as the case may be.

Withholding tax

If the Notes are kept or administered by a Domestic Disbursing Agent from the time of their acquisition, a 25 per cent. withholding tax, plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon, is levied on the capital gains, resulting in a total withholding tax charge of 26.375 per cent. If the Notes were sold or redeemed after being transferred to another securities deposit account, the 25 per cent. withholding tax (plus solidarity surcharge thereon) would be levied on 30 per cent. of the proceeds from the sale or the redemption, as the case may be, unless the investor or the previous account bank was able and allowed to provide evidence for the investor's actual acquisition costs to the new Domestic Disbursing Agent. The applicable withholding tax rate is in excess of the aforementioned rate if church tax applies to the individual investor.

No withholding is generally required on capital gains derived by German resident corporate investors and upon application by individual investors holding the Notes as business assets.

Non-German resident Holders
Income derived from the Notes by holders who are not tax resident in Germany is in general not subject to German income taxation, and no withholding tax shall be withheld, provided however (i) the Notes are not held as business assets of a German permanent establishment of the investor or by a permanent German representative of the investor, (ii) the income derived from the Notes does not otherwise constitute German source income (such as income derived from Notes that are secured by German real estate or vessels subject to certain exceptions or income from the letting and leasing of certain property located in Germany) or (iii) the income is paid by a German Disbursing Agent against presentation of the Notes or interest coupons (so-called over-the-counter transaction).

If the income derived from the Notes is subject to German taxation according to (i) to (iii) above, the income is subject to withholding tax similar to that described above under the paragraph Withholding tax. Under certain circumstances, foreign investors may benefit from tax reductions or tax exemptions under applicable double tax treaties (Doppelbesteuerungsabkommen) entered into with Germany.

Inheritance and gift tax
The transfer of Notes to another person by way of gift or inheritance is subject to German gift or inheritance tax, respectively, if inter alia

(i) the testator, the donor, the heir, the donee or any other acquirer had his residence, habitual abode or, in case of a corporation, association of persons (Personenvereinigung) or asset pool (Vermögensmasse), its seat or place of management in Germany at the time of the transfer of property,

(ii) except as provided under (i), the testator’s or donor’s Notes belong to business assets attributable to a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in Germany.

Special regulations apply to certain German expatriates.
Prospective investors are urged to consult with their tax advisor to determine the particular inheritance or gift tax consequences in light of their particular circumstances.

Other taxes
The purchase, sale or other disposal of Notes does not give rise to capital transfer tax, value added tax, stamp duties or similar taxes or charges in Germany. However, under certain circumstances entrepreneurs may choose liability to value added tax with regard to the sales of Notes which would otherwise be tax exempt. Net wealth tax (Vermögensteuer) is, at present, not levied in Germany.

European directive on the taxation of savings income
On 3 June 2003 the Economic and Financial Affairs Council of the European Union (ECOFIN Council) adopted directive 2003/48/EC on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments ("Savings Directive"). Under the Savings Directive and from 1 July 2005, each EU Member State is required to provide the tax authorities of another Member State with details of payments of interest and other similar income paid by a person in one Member State to an individual resident in another Member State. Austria and Luxembourg must instead impose a withholding tax for a transitional period unless during such period they elect to participate in the information exchange. In Germany, provisions for implementing the Savings Directive have been enacted by legislative regulations of the federal government (Zinsinformationsverordnung). These provisions apply as from 1 July 2005.
Taxation in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg

The comments below are intended as a basic overview of certain tax consequences in relation to the purchase, ownership and disposal of the Notes under Luxembourg law.

Withholding tax and self-applied tax

Under Luxembourg tax law currently in effect and with the possible exception of interest paid to certain individual Holders or so-called residual entities (as defined below), there is no Luxembourg withholding tax on payments of interest (including accrued but unpaid interest). There is also no Luxembourg withholding tax, with the possible exception of payments made to certain individual Holders or so-called residual entities (as defined below), upon repayment of principal in case of reimbursement, redemption, repurchase or exchange of the Notes.

Luxembourg non-resident individuals

Under the Luxembourg laws dated 21 June 2005 implementing the European Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income (the "Savings Directive") and several agreements concluded between Luxembourg and certain dependent or associated territories of the European Union ("EU"), a Luxembourg based paying agent (within the meaning of the Savings Directive) is required since 1 July 2005 to withhold tax on interest and other similar income paid by it to (or under certain circumstances, to the benefit of) an individual or to certain "residual entities" resident or established in another EU Member State or in certain EU dependent or associated territories, unless the beneficiary of the interest payments elects for the procedure of exchange of information or, in the case of an individual beneficiary, for the tax certificate procedure. Residual entities within the meaning of Article 4.2 of the Savings Directive are entities which are not legal persons (the Finnish and Swedish companies listed in Article 4.5 of the Savings Directive are not considered as legal persons for this purpose), whose profits are not taxed under the general arrangements for the business taxation and which are not or have not opted to be treated as UCITS recognised in accordance with the European Council Directive 85/611/EEC, as replaced by the European Council Directive 2009/65/EC, or similar collective investment funds located in Jersey, Guernsey, the Isle of Man, the Turks and Caicos Islands, the Cayman Islands, Montserrat or the British Virgin Islands.

The current withholding tax rate is 35 per cent. Responsibility for the withholding of the tax will be assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent. The withholding tax system will only apply during a transitional period, the ending of which depends on the conclusion of certain agreements relating to information exchange with certain third countries.

The European Commission has proposed certain amendments to the Savings Directive, which, if implemented, may amend or broaden the scope of the requirements described above.

Luxembourg resident individuals

In accordance with the law of 23 December 2005 as amended by the law of 17 July 2008 on the introduction of a withholding tax on certain interest payments on savings income, interest payments made by Luxembourg paying agents (defined in the same way as in the Savings Directive) to Luxembourg individual residents are subject to a 10 per cent. withholding tax. Pursuant to the Luxembourg law of 23 December 2005 as amended by the law of 17 July 2008, Luxembourg resident individuals, acting in the course of their private wealth, can opt to self-declare and pay a 10 per cent. tax on interest payments made after 31 December 2007 by paying agents (defined in the same way as in the Savings Directive) located in an EU Member State other than Luxembourg, a Member State of the European Economic Area other than an EU Member State or in a State or territory which has concluded an international agreement directly related to the Savings Directive.
Taxation in The Netherlands

For the purposes of this section, “the Netherlands” shall mean that part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands that is in Europe.

Withholding tax

All payments made by the Issuer under the Notes may be made free of withholding or deduction of, for or on account of any taxes of whatever nature imposed, levied, withheld or assessed by the Netherlands or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

Taxation in Austria

The following is a brief overview of certain Austrian tax aspects in connection with the Notes. It does not claim to fully describe all Austrian tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition or redemption of the Notes nor does it take into account the Holders’ individual circumstances or any special tax treatment applicable to the Holder. It is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice. Prospective investors should consult their own professional advisors as to the particular tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition or redemption of the Notes.

The Issuer does not assume responsibility for Austrian withholding tax and is not obliged to make additional payments in case of Austrian withholding tax deductions.

Austrian tax resident individual investor

Interest income and a capital gain (i.e. the difference between the sale price and the acquisition cost, which in case of private individual investors exclude incidental acquisition cost) realised from the Notes by an investor resident in Austria for tax purposes (i.e., a person that has a domicile or place of habitual abode in Austria) is subject to Austrian income tax generally at a final tax rate of 25% if the Notes are legally and actually publicly offered.

If interest is paid by an Austrian paying agent (e.g. an Austrian bank or the Austrian branch of a non-Austrian bank) Austrian withholding tax at a rate of 25% is triggered. In relation to capital gains Austrian withholding tax at a rate of 25% is triggered if the Notes are deposited with an Austrian depository (e.g. an Austrian bank or the Austrian branch of a non-Austrian bank) or under certain conditions if capital gains are realised and paid via an Austrian paying agent. In the absence of an Austrian paying agent or depository the investor must include interest, capital gains or income from derivatives in the income tax return and such income is taxed at a rate of 25%. Capital gains and income from derivatives also need to be included in the income tax return if realised as business income. The Austrian withholding tax treatment and the 25% Austrian (withholding) tax rate is subject to a public offer of the Notes. An investor may apply for taxation at the progressive income tax rate. A deduction of expenses that are directly economically connected to income and capital gain from the Notes is generally not allowed.

Losses from Notes held as private assets may only be set off with other investment income subject to the special 25% tax rate (excluding, inter alia, interest income from bank deposits and other claims against banks). With effect as of 1 January 2013 the Austrian securities depositories will apply an automatic set-off of losses against investment income from securities accounts at the same securities depository (subject to certain exemptions). Also losses incurred between 1 April 2012 and 31 December 2012 will be set off by 30 April 2013. However, a carry-forward of such losses is not permitted.

Austrian tax resident corporate investor

Income and capital gain derived from the Notes by an Austrian resident corporation (i.e., a corporation that has its seat or place of effective management in Austria) is subject to Austrian corporate income tax at a rate of 25 per cent. Corporate Holders deriving business income from the Notes may avoid the application of Austrian withholding tax by filing a declaration of exemption (Befreiungserklärung). Where the 25% withholding tax is triggered, it is creditable against the Austrian corporate income tax liability of the corporate investor.
Non-Austrian tax resident investor

Interest and capital gains received by a non-Austrian resident investor for tax purposes under the Notes are not subject to Austrian (corporate) income tax unless attributable to an Austrian located permanent establishment. An Austrian paying agent or depository may abstain from levying 25% Austrian withholding tax if the non-resident Holders evidence their non-resident-status vis-à-vis the paying agent in accordance with the provisions of the Austrian income tax guidelines.

Interest paid by an Austrian coupon-paying agent to an individual beneficial owner resident in another EU Member State or certain dependent and associated territories is subject to EU withholding tax at a rate of currently 35 per cent. under the Austrian EU-Withholding Tax Act (EU-Quellensteuergesetz, "EU-QuStG"; implementing Directive 2003/48/EC of 3 June 2003). No EU withholding tax is deducted if the Holder provides the paying agent with a certificate drawn up in his name by the tax office of his member state of residence in accordance with section 10 EU-QuStG.
OFFER, SALE AND SUBSCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

Offer of the Notes

Bookbuilding process, Offer Period and determination of Pricing Details
The Notes will be offered to investors by, inter alia, BNP PARIBAS, Citigroup Global Markets Limited and Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch as active bookrunners and Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc and UniCredit Bank AG as passive bookrunners (together, the "Joint Lead Managers" or the "Managers") will conduct an accelerated bookbuilding process which is expected to be carried out on the Pricing Date (as defined below).

During the bookbuilding process the Managers will offer the Notes to institutional investors and retail investors in compliance with applicable public offer restrictions.

The Issue Price, the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be issued, the interest rate, the issue proceeds and the yield of the issue (together, the "Pricing Details") will be determined as described in "Method of determination of the Pricing Details" below on the pricing date which is expected to be on or about 27 September 2012 (the "Pricing Date"). Upon determination, the Pricing Details will be set out in a notice (the "Pricing Notice") which will be filed with the CSSF and published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu) on or after the Pricing Date and on or prior to the Issue Date. Any onsale of Notes will be subject to market conditions.

During an offer period which is expected to commence on 27 September 2012 and will be open until 5 October 2012 (the "Offer Period"), the Notes will be sold to institutional investors and to retail investors at the Issue Price in compliance with the public offer restrictions in all countries in the European Union. The Notes will be offered to the public in each of Luxembourg, Germany, Austria and The Netherlands following the effectiveness of the notification of the Prospectus by the CSSF according to article 18 of the Prospectus Directive.

The Issuer and the Managers may in their discretion decide to shorten the Offer Period. Should the Issuer and the Managers determine any shortening or extension of the Offer Period (e.g. due to changing market conditions), such changes will be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

Conditions and details of the offer
There are no conditions to which the offer is subject. In particular, there is no minimum or maximum amount of Notes required to be purchased. Investors may place offers to purchase Notes in any amount, subject to the Principal Amount of EUR 1,000 per Note.

Subscription rights for the Notes will not be issued. Therefore, there are no procedures in place for the exercise of any right of pre-emption, the negotiability of subscription rights and the treatment of subscription rights not exercised.

Offers to purchase Notes by the investors
During the Offer Period (including prior to the Pricing Date), investors may submit offers to purchase Notes to the Managers using the information system Bloomberg or any other commonly used information systems or through banking institutions in Luxembourg, Germany, Austria and The Netherlands. In the case of an order prior to the determination of the Pricing Details, investors shall specify at which price they would be prepared to purchase which amount of Notes. Following determination and notification of the Pricing Details, any order placed by investors with respect to the Notes will be deemed to have been made at the Issue Price and the rate of interest determined.
Method of determination of the Pricing Details

The Issue Price, the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be issued, the interest rate and the yield of the issue will be determined by the Issuer and the Joint Lead Managers on the basis of the price indications and orders received by the Joint Lead Managers from the investors by the time of pricing.

The Issue Price for, and the interest rate of, the Notes will be fixed on the basis of a yield which is determined by adding a credit spread (the "Pricing Credit Spread") to the level of the Midswaps at the time of pricing. The level of the Midswaps will be determined as the average yield of the bid and ask prices of Interest-Swap Transactions (Midswaps) with a maturity similar to the maturity of the Notes shown on the Reuters page ICAPEURO or Bloomberg page ICAE1 or on any other screen page which is conventionally used to price Eurobond transactions at the time of pricing. The Pricing Credit Spread will be fixed on the basis of the orders received and confirmed by the Joint Lead Managers.

The resulting yield will be used to determine the Issue Price (which is expected to be less than par) and the rate of interest (which is expected to be a percentage figure which can be evenly divided by 1/8 of a full per cent. and which will be correspondingly higher if a higher Issue Price is determined and which will be correspondingly lower if a lower Issue Price is determined), all to correspond to the yield which reflects the level of the Midswaps and the Pricing Credit Spread. In the event that the figures for the relevant Midswaps will not be shown as set out above, the yield, the Issue Price and the rate of interest will be determined in a manner which banks and other institutional market participants apply at that time.

Subscription and allotment of the Notes

Subscription by the Managers

Following the determination of the Pricing Details, the Managers will, pursuant to a subscription agreement to be signed on or about 5 October 2012 (the "Subscription Agreement"), agree to subscribe or procure subscribers for the Notes.

The commission payable to the Managers in connection with the offering, placement and subscription of the Notes will be up to 0.325 per cent. of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes.

The Managers will be entitled, under certain circumstances, to terminate the Subscription Agreement. In such event, no Notes will be delivered to investors. Furthermore, the Issuer will agree to indemnify the Managers against certain liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the Notes.

The Managers or their affiliates have provided from time to time, and expect to provide in the future, investment services to the Issuer and its affiliates, for which the Managers or their affiliates have received or will receive customary fees and commissions.

There are no interests of natural and legal persons other than the Issuer involved in the issue, including conflicting ones that are material to the issue.

Confirmation of offers placed by, and allotments to, investors

Any investor who has submitted an order in relation to the Notes and whose order is accepted by the Managers will receive a confirmation by electronic mail, fax or through commonly used information systems setting out its respective allotment of Notes. Before an investor receives a confirmation from the Managers that its offer to purchase Notes has been accepted, the investor may reduce or withdraw its purchase order.

Delivery of the Notes to investors

Following the determination of the Pricing Details and confirmation which orders have been accepted and which amounts have been allotted to particular investors, delivery and payment of the Notes will be made within five business days after the date of pricing of the Notes and the confirmation of the allotment to investors. The Notes so purchased will be delivered via book-entry through the Clearing System (see "General Information – Clearing System") and their depository banks against payment of the Issue Price therefor.

Costs and expenses relating to the offer
The Issuer will not charge any costs, expenses or taxes directly to any investor in connection with the Notes. Investors must, however, inform themselves about any costs, expenses or taxes in connection with the Notes which are generally applicable in their respective country of residence, including any charges their own depository banks charge them for purchasing or holding securities.

Selling Restrictions

General
Each Manager has acknowledged that other than explicitly mentioned in this Prospectus no action is taken or will be taken by the Issuer in any jurisdiction that would permit a public offering of the Notes, or possession or distribution of any offering material relating to them, in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required.

Each Manager has represented and agreed that it will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers, sells or delivers Notes or has in its possession or distributes any offering material relating to them.

European Economic Area
In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area* which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State"), each Manager has represented, warranted and agreed that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the "Relevant Implementation Date") it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Prospectus to the public in that Relevant Member State other than the offers contemplated in this Prospectus in Luxembourg, Germany, Austria, and The Netherlands from the time this Prospectus has been approved by the competent authority in Luxembourg and published and notified to the relevant competent authorities in accordance with the Prospectus Directive as implemented in Luxembourg, Germany, Austria, and The Netherlands until the Issue Date, and provided that the Issuer has consented in writing to the use of this Prospectus for any such offers, except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of such Notes to the public in that Relevant Member State:

(a) to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;

(b) to fewer than 100, or, if the Relevant Member State has implemented the relevant provision of the 2010 PD Amending Directive, 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), as permitted under the Prospectus Directive, subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Joint Lead Managers; or provided that no such offer of the Notes shall require the Issuer or any Joint Lead Manager to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

(c) in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive;

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Notes to the public" in relation to any Notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State and the expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (and amendments thereto, including the 2010 PD Amending Directive), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State and the expression "2010 PD Amending Directive" means Directive 2010/73/EU.

* The EU plus Iceland, Norway and Liechtenstein.

\(^1\) S&P defines ‘AA’ as follows: An obligor rated ‘AA’ has very strong financial security characteristics, differing only slightly from those rated higher. Standard & Poor’s rating scale for the long-term credit ratings consists of the following categories: "AAA", "AA", "A", "BBB", "BB", "B", "CCC", "CC" (in descending order). Ratings from "AA" to "CCC" may be modified by the addition of a plus (+) or minus (-) sign to show relative standing within the major rating categories.

Standard & Poor’s rating scale for the short-term issue credit ratings goes from A-1 to D. An A-1 rating means that the obligor's capacity to meet its financial commitment on the obligation is strong. Within the A-1 category it can be designated with a plus sign (+). This indicates that the issuer's commitment to meet its obligation is very strong. Country risk and currency of repayment of the obligor to meet the issue obligation are factored into the credit analysis and reflected in the issue rating.
